This book presents fifty-one didactic and devotional Sufi poems with English translations composed by the ulama of Brava on Somalia's Benadir coast in Chimiini, a Bantu language related to Swahili and unique to the town. Because the six ulama poets, among whom two women guided local believers towards correct beliefs and behaviours in reference to specific authoritative religious texts, the poems allow insight into their authors' religious education affiliations in which the Q diriyah and A madiyyah took pride of place and regional connections. Because the poems refer to local people, places, events, and livelihoods, they also bring into view the uniquely local dimension of Islam in this small East African port city in this time period.
