Proud Bastards:

The Proud Bastards E. Michael Helms, 2004-02-20 A riveting memoir of one marine rifleman's journey from Parris Island through the hell of Vietnam and the Tet Offensive with the Second Battalion Fourth Marines. In 1967 a young E Michael Helms boarded a bus to the legendary grounds of Parris Island where mere boys were forged into hardened Marines and sent to the jungles of Vietnam. It was the first stop on a journey that would forever change him and by its end he would be awarded the Purple Heart Medal Combat Action Ribbon Presidential Unit Citation Navy Unit Citation and the Vietnam Cross of Gallantry. From the brutality and endurance straining ordeals of boot camp to the endless horror of combat Helms paints a vivid unflinchingly realistic depiction of the lives of Marines in training and under fire. As powerful and compelling a battlefield memoir as any ever written Helms's grunt's eye view of the Vietnam War, the men who fought it and the mindless chaos that surrounded it is truly a modern military classic.

The Proud Bastards E. Michael Helms, 1990 Nothing in his months of training had prepared Helms for the reality of the DMZ, the thick red mud, the heat of the jungle, the noise, the stink, the pain. But he was a Magnificent Bastard, a member of the BLT 24 Marines, and he was there to do what he could, willing to lay down his life for freedom.

Proud Beggars Albert Cossery, 2011-12-27 Early in Proud Beggars a brutal and motiveless murder is committed in a Cairo brothel. But the real mystery at the heart of Albert Cossery's wry black comedy is not the cause of this death but the paradoxical richness to be found in even the most materially impoverished life. Chief among Cossery's proud beggars is Gohar, a former professor turned whorehouse accountant, hashish aficionado and street philosopher. Such is his native charm that he has accumulated a small coterie that includes Yeghen, a rhapsodic poet and drug dealer, and El Kordi, an ineffectual clerk and would-be revolutionary who dreams of rescuing a consumptive prostitute. The police investigator Nour El Dine, harboring a dark secret of his own, suspects all three of the murder but finds himself captivated by their warm good humor. How is it that they live amid degrading poverty yet possess a joie de vivre that even the most assiduous forces of state cannot suppress? Do they, despite their rejection of social norms and all ambition, hold the secret of contentment? And so this short novel, considered one of Cossery's masterpieces, is at once biting social commentary, police procedural and a mischievous delight in its own right.
