Auction House Power Logan Rodriguez, AI, 2025-02-21 Auction House Power unveils the inner workings of major art auction houses institutions wielding significant influence over the art market Delving into the intricacies of multimillion dollar sales the book explores how these houses actively shape artistic reputations and market trends rather than simply acting as transactional platforms One intriguing aspect is the detailed examination of authentication and provenance research processes that can dramatically impact an artwork's valuation The book progresses from introducing key players and concepts to analyzing marketing strategies and the psychology of bidding By combining rigorous data analysis with insights from industry professionals Auction House Power provides a comprehensive understanding of art auctions This approach demystifies the often opaque world of art investment and art sales offering readers a unique glimpse behind the scenes and empowering them to navigate the art market more effectively Amarna's Leatherwork. Part I A. J.

Veldmeijer, 2011 The ancient Egyptian city of Tell el Amarna or Amarna ancient Akhetaten was the short lived capital built by the controversial Pharaoh Akhenaten probably the father of the famous Tutankhamun and abandoned shortly after his death c 1336 BCE It is one of the few Pharaonic cities to have been thoroughly excavated and is a rich source of information about the daily life of the ancient Egyptians This volume the first of two presents the leatherwork excavated at the site by these various expeditions The book consists of two parts the catalogue and the preliminary analysis The former presents the detailed description of the objects among which chariot leather and footwear accompanied by colour photographs and where necessary line and construction drawings The latter includes an explanation of the Amarna Leatherwork Project as well as preliminary interpretations of the finds The Chora of Metaponto 6 Francesca Silvestrelli, Ingrid E. M.

Edlund-Berry, 2016-08-02 The sixth volume in the Institute of Classical Archaeology's series on the rural countryside chora of Metaponto is a study of the Greek settlement at Sant Angelo Vecchio Located on a slope overlooking the Basento River the site illustrates the extraordinary variety of settlements and uses of the territory from prehistory through the current day Excavators brought to light a Late Archaic farmhouse evidence of a sanctuary near a spring and a cluster of eight burials of the mid fifth century BC but the most impressive remains belong to a production area with kilns Active in the Hellenistic Late Republican and Early Imperial periods these kilns illuminate important and lesser known features of production in the chora of a Greek city and also chronicle the occupation of the territory in these periods The thorough diachronic presentation of the evidence from Sant Angelo Vecchio is complemented by specialist studies on the environment landscape and artifacts which date from prehistory to the post medieval period Significantly the evidence spans the range of Greek site types farmhouse necropolis sanctuary and production center as well as the Greek dates from the Archaic to Early Imperial periods highlighted during ICA's survey of the Metapontine chora In this regard Chora 6 enhances the four volumes of The Chora of Metaponto 3 Archaeological Field Survey Bradano to Basento and provides further insight into how sites in the chora interacted

Duveen Meryle Secrest,2005-11 Anyone who has admired Gainsborough s Blue Boy of the Huntington Collection in California or Rembrandt s Aristotle Contemplating the Bust of Homer at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York owes much of his or her pleasure to art dealer Joseph Duveen 1869 1939 Regarded as the most influential or in some circles notorious dealer of the twentieth century Duveen established himself selling the European masterpieces of Titian Botticelli Giotto and Vermeer to newly and lavishly wealthy American businessmen J P Morgan John D Rockefeller and Andrew Mellon to name just a few It is no exaggeration to say that Duveen was the driving force behind every important private art collection in the United States The first major biography of Duveen in more than fifty years and the first to make use of his enormous archive only recently opened to the public Meryle Secrest s Duveen traces the rapid ascent of the tirelessly enterprising dealer from his humble beginnings running his father s business to knighthood and eventually apeerage The eldest of eight sons of Jewish Dutch immigrants Duveen inherited an uncanny ability to spot a hidden treasure from his father proprietor of a prosperous antiques business After his father s death Duveen moved the company into the riskier but lucrative market of paintings and quickly became one of the world s leading art dealers The key to Duveen s success was his simple observation that while Europe had the art America had the money Duveen made his fortune by buying art from declining European aristocrats and selling them to the squillionaires in the United States By far the best account of Joseph Duveen s life in a biography that is rich in detail scrupulously researched and sympathetically written Secrest s inquiries into early twentieth century collecting whet our appetite for a more general history of the art market in the first half of the twentieth century John Brewer New York Review of Books
