The Archaeological Journal, 1887 A Collection of Archaeological Pamphlets on Roman Remains Formed by Sir B.C.A. Windle and Relating Principally to Great Britain Sir Bertram Coghill Alan Windle, 1882 Savoir-Faire Maryann Tebben, 2020-09-06 Savoir Faire is a comprehensive account of France's rich culinary history which is not only full of tales of haute cuisine but seasoned with myths and stories from a wide variety of times and places from snail hunting in Burgundy to female chefs in Lyon and from cheese appreciation in Roman Gaul to bread debates from the Middle Ages to the present. It examines the use of less familiar ingredients such as chestnuts, couscous and oysters, explores French food in literature and film, reveals the influence of France's overseas territories on the shape of French cuisine today and includes historical recipes for readers to try at home Guide Michelin Pour la France, 1924 Don't Think, But Look! (Bilingual Edition) Walter Feilchenfeldt, Lukas Gloor, 2024-02-20 From Giotto to Gerhard Richter a history of painting told solely through images. Inspired by Wittgenstein's famous request 'Don't Think but Look' provides a text-free presentation of over 300 paintings from art history presented in chronological order, challenging readers to form a purely visual analysis of art history Des jardins sur la Riviera Alain Goudot, 2002 Northern Pontic Antiquities in the State Hermitage Museum John Boardman, Sergei Solovyov, G.R. Tsetskhladze, 2021-10-18 This volume, written by staff of the State Hermitage, one of the world's finest museums, publishes Graeco-Roman antiquities kept there. Much of the material has been unearthed during the museum's field projects in Berezan, Myrmekion and Nymphaeum. Many items are published here for the first time. In addition, there are new studies and reinterpretations of well-known material. The book also contains reviews and notes on new publications on the Black Sea from Eastern and Western Europe and North America. The volume provides a good account of the manifold activities in which the staff of the Department of the History and Culture of the Ancient World and of the Hermitage in general are engaged. The book is very richly illustrated with nearly 150 photographs, line drawings, maps, etc. Mammalia, 1936 Haitian Revolutionary Studies David Patrick Geggus, 2002-08-12 The Haitian Revolution of 1789-1803 transformed the Caribbean's wealthiest colony into the first independent state in Latin America, encompassed the largest slave uprising in the Americas and inflicted a humiliating defeat on three colonial powers. In Haitian Revolutionary Studies, David Patrick Geggus sheds new light on this tremendous upheaval by marshaling an unprecedented range of evidence drawn from archival research in six countries. Geggus's fine-grained essays explore central issues and little-studied aspects of the conflict, including new historiography and sources, the origins of the black rebellion and relations between slaves and free people of color. The contributions of vodou and marronage to the slave uprising, Toussaint Louverture and the abolition question, the policies of the major powers toward the revolution and its interaction with the early French Revolution are also addressed. Questions about ethnicity, identity and historical knowledge inform this essential study of a complex revolution Van Gogh Vincent van Gogh, 2002 Edited by Wulf Herzogenrath and Dorothee Hansen. Essay by Roland Dorn.

Shapely Bodies Christine A. Jones, 2013-05-16 Shapely Bodies The Image of Porcelain in Eighteenth Century France constructs the first cultural history of porcelain making in France It takes its title from two types of bodies treated in this study the craft of porcelain making shaped clods of earth into a clay body to produce high end commodities and the French elite shaped human bodies into social subjects with the help of makeup stylish patterns and accessories These practices crossed paths in the work of artisans whose luxury objects reflected and also influenced the curves of fashion in the eighteenth century French artisans began trials to reproduce fine Chinese porcelain in the 1660s The challenge proved impossible until they found an essential ingredient kaolin in French soil in the 1760s Shapely Bodies differs from other studies of French porcelain in that it does not begin in the 1760s at the Sevres manufactory when it became technically possible to produce fine porcelain in France but instead ends there Without the secret of Chinese porcelain artisans in France turned to radical forms of experimentation Over the first half of the eighteenth century they invented artificial alternatives to Chinese porcelain decorated them with French style and with equal determination shaped an identity for their new trade that distanced it from traditional guild crafts and aligned it with scientific invention The back story of porcelain making before kaolin provides a fascinating glimpse into the world of artisanal innovation and cultural mythmaking To write artificial porcelain into a history of real porcelain dominated by China Japan and Meissen in Saxony French porcelainiers learned to describe their new commodity in language that tapped into national pride and the mythic power of French savoir faire Artificial porcelain cut such a fashionable image that by the mid eighteenth century Louis XV appropriated it for the glory of the crown When the monarchy ended revolutionaries reclaimed French porcelain the fruit of a century of artisanal labor for the Republic Tracking how the porcelain arts were depicted in documents and visual arts during one hundred years of experimentation Shapely Bodies reveals the politics behind the making of French porcelain's image Published by University of Delaware Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press The Sun King at Sea Meredith Martin, Gillian Weiss, 2022-01-04 Winner of the 2023 Leo Gershoy Award 2023 Winner of The David H Pinkney Prize Honorable Mention for The Mediterranean Seminar Best Book Prize 2023 Winner of the 2022 Kenshur Prize Shortlisted for Apollo Magazine's 2022 Book of the Year This richly illustrated volume the first devoted to maritime art and galley slavery in early modern France shows how royal propagandists used the image and labor of enslaved Muslims to glorify Louis XIV Mediterranean maritime art and the forced labor on which it depended were fundamental to the politics and propaganda of France's King Louis XIV r 1643 1715 Yet most studies of French art in this period focus on Paris and Versailles overlooking the presence or portrayal of galley slaves on the kingdom's coasts By examining a wide range of artistic productions ship design artillery sculpture medals paintings and prints Meredith Martin and Gillian Weiss uncover a vital aspect of royal representation and unsettle a standard picture of art and power in early modern France With an abundant selection of startling images many never before published The Sun King at Sea emphasizes the role of enslaved Turks enslaved Turks
