Seeking the Welfare of the City Naomi Noguchi Reese,2025-01-27 In the history of public theology the Holy Spirit s role in creation has been underexplored If the Holy Spirit is the agent of transformation in creation why have so many theologians neglected the Spirit s activity in the context of public theology One of the causes of such neglect derives from a long held belief in dualism or its assumption As a result generally speaking theologians have neglected the eschatological aspect of the Spirit s work over creation and instead have devoted much of their attention to the immanent spiritual aspect of the Spirit s work Hence a theology is needed that recaptures the eschatological aspect of the Spirit s work over creation and Colin E Gunton s pneumatology that is trinitarianly formulated and eschatologically conceived brings a fresh approach to public theology and moves us toward a full bodied holistic and trinitarian public theology that takes into account the triune God This study attempts to draw upon the resources uncovered in Gunton s pneumatology to outline applications for Christian engagement of the public square for the twenty first century The book concludes with criteria for discerning the Spirit s work in the public square to give us practical ways to see how the Spirit may be working in the public square for transformation
