Provincial Middle Minoan Pottery:

Provincial Middle Minoan Pottery Gisela Walberg, 1983      The Minoan Shipwreck at Pseira, Crete Elpida Hadjidaki-Marder, 2021-06-15 The excavation of a Minoan shipwreck dated to 1725 1700 BC is described The cargo includes the largest known corpus of complete and almost complete clay vessels from a single Middle Minoan IIB deposit The transport boat provides interesting information on a society that revolved around seafaring      Temple University Aegean Symposium Philip P. Betancourt, 2015-12-31 The Temple University Aegean Symposium was an annual event from 1976 until 1985 sponsored by the Department of Art History at Temple University in Philadelphia PA Each year the symposium focused on a specific theme in Aegean Bronze Age art and archaeology This book is a collection of the 10 volumes of articles that were published Aside from incorporating errata the articles are unchanged from the original publications A new Preface and page numbering system are included in this compendium      Prehistoric Textiles E. J.W. Barber, 2021-11-09 This pioneering work revises our notions of the origins and early development of textiles in Europe and the Near East Using innovative linguistic techniques along with methods from palaeobiology and other fields it shows that spinning and pattern weaving began far earlier than has been supposed Prehistoric Textiles made an unsurpassed leap in the social and cultural understanding of textiles in humankind s early history Cloth making was an industry that consumed more time and effort and was more culturally significant to prehistoric cultures than anyone assumed before the book s publication The textile industry is in fact older than pottery and perhaps even older than agriculture and stockbreeding It probably consumed far more hours of labor per year in temperate climates than did pottery and food production put together And this work was done primarily by women Up until the Industrial Revolution and into this century in many peasant societies women spent every available moment spinning weaving and sewing The author Elizabeth Wayland Barber demonstrates command of an almost unbelievably disparate array of disciplines from historical linguistics to archaeology and paleobiology from art history to the practical art of weaving Her passionate interest in the subject matter leaps out on every page Barber a professor of linguistics and archaeology developed expert sewing and weaving skills as a small girl under her mother s tutelage One could say she had been born and raised to write this book Because modern textiles are almost entirely made by machines we have difficulty appreciating how time consuming and important the premodern textile industry was This book opens our eyes to this crucial area of prehistoric human culture      Minoan Buildings in Areas B, C, D, and F Philip P. Betancourt, Costis Davaras, 2015-09-30 This is the fourth volume in a series of final publications on the joint American Greek archaeological excavations at Pseira in northeast Crete The site is a seaport dating from the end of the Final Neolithic until the Late Minoan period Pseira IV publishes the architecture and associated finds from 39 locations in Areas B C D and F in the Minoan town of Pseira The Bronze Age settlement is located on Pseira Island off the coast of Crete in the Gulf of Mirabello Pseira IV

Prehistoric Crete Joanne M. Murphy, 2011-06-15 Since the inception of Minoan archaeology studies pertaining to tombs and tomb deposits have played seminal roles in our understanding of Minoan culture and the reconstruction of Bronze Age society For several geographical areas and chronological periods of Cretan history tombs are the most abundant source of data Each author in this volume takes a clear and distinct approach to the data including some that emphasize political geography on multi regional and multi scalar levels some that examine the commemoration of the dead and of the community for legitimizing purposes but also for maintaining and or creating elite positions in social systems and others that underline the overlap between mortuary rituals and religion The aim of this volume is not to present all tombs in all periods on Crete comprehensively but the breadth of these papers is intended generate a discourse not just among archaeologists working in different areas and time periods on Crete but also among archaeologists in Greece and a broader anthropological audience      Moni Odigitria Keith Branigan, Andonis Vasilakis, 2010-12-31 This volume presents the final report on the excavation of two Prepalatial tholos tombs and their associated remains at Chatzinas Liophyto near the Moni Odigitria monastery in south central Crete The grave goods and burial remains include pottery metal objects chipped stones stone vases gold and stone jewelry sealstones and human skeletal material The results of the associated survey of the upper catchment of the Hagiopharango region are also reported The book finishes with a reappraisal of our understanding of the early settlement of the Hagiopharango and a Greek summary      The Plain of Phaistos Harriet Blitzer, Despoina Hadzi-Vallianou, L.
