Provincializing Europe:

Provincializing Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2000 First published in 2000 Dipesh Chakrabarty's influential Provincializing Europe addresses the mythical figure of Europe that is often taken to be the original site of modernity in many histories of capitalist transition in non Western countries This imaginary Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty argues is built into the social sciences The very idea of historicizing carries with it some peculiarly European assumptions about disenchanted space secular time and sovereignty Measured against such mythical standard capitalist transition in the third world has often seemed either incomplete or lacking Provincializing Europe proposes that every case of transition to capitalism is a case of translation as well a translation of existing worlds and their thought categories into the categories and self understandings of capitalist modernity Now featuring a new preface in which Chakrabarty responds to his critics this book globalizes European thought by exploring how many it may be renewed both for and from the margins from back cover Provincializing Europe, 2000 Can European thought be dislodged from the center of the practice of history in a non European place What problems arise when we translate cultural practices into the categories of social science Provincializing Europe is one of the first book length treatments on how postcolonial thinking impacts on the social sciences This book explores through a series of linked essays the problems of thought that present themselves when we think of a place such as India through the categories of modern European social science and in particular history Provincializing Europe is a sustained conversation between historical thinking and postcolonial perspectives It addresses the mythical figure of Europe that is often taken to be the original site of the modern in many histories of capitalist transition in non Western countries This imaginary Europe Chakrabarty argues is built right into the social sciences The very idea of historicizing carries with it some peculiarly European assumptions about disenchanted space secular time and human sovereignty Measured against such mythical standards capitalist transition in the third world has often seemed either incomplete or lacking Chakrabarty finds that Nativism however is no answer to Eurocentrism because the universals propounded by European Enlightenment remain indispensable to any social critique that seeks to address issues of social justice and equity Provincializing Europe proposes that every case of transition to capitalism is a case of translation as well a translation of existing worlds and their thought categories into the categories and self understandings of capitalist modernity Chakrabarty demonstrates both theoretically and with examples from colonial and contemporary India how such translational histories may be thought and written Provincializing Europe is not a project of shunning European thought It is a project of globalizing such thought by exploring how it may be renewed both for and from the margins Provincializing Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2009-06-05 First published in 2000 Dipesh Chakrabarty's influential Provincializing Europe addresses the mythical figure of Europe that is often taken to be the original site of modernity in many histories of capitalist transition in non Western countries This imaginary Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty argues is built into the social sciences The very idea of historicizing carries with it

some peculiarly European assumptions about disenchanted space secular time and sovereignty Measured against such mythical standards capitalist transition in the third world has often seemed either incomplete or lacking Provincializing Europe proposes that every case of transition to capitalism is a case of translation as well a translation of existing worlds and their thought categories into the categories and self understandings of capitalist modernity Now featuring a new preface in which Chakrabarty responds to his critics this book globalizes European thought by exploring how it may be renewed both for and from the margins Europe and Its Boundaries Andrew Davison, Himadeep Muppidi, 2009-01-01 In crating a forum for a deeply hermeneutical consideration of the project of provincializing Europe this book articulates an alternative grammar of global political thought It shows that forms of global political thought are capable of residing simultaneously within as well as significantly beyond the boundaries of European thought How the West Came to Rule Alexander Anievas, Kerem Nişancıolu, 2015-06-20 Winner of International Studies Association ISA s International Political Sociology Best Book Prize for 2017 Winner of British International Studies Association BISA s International Political Economy Working Group Book Prize of 2016 Shortlisted for the ISA Book Prize Mainstream historical accounts of the development of capitalism describe a process which is fundamentally European a system that was born in the mills and factories of England or under the guillotines of the French Revolution In this groundbreaking book a very different story is told How the West Came to Rule offers a interdisciplinary and international historical account of the origins of capitalism It argues that contrary to the dominant wisdom capitalism s origins should not be understood as a development confined to the geographically and culturally sealed borders of Europe but the outcome of a wider array of global processes in which non European societies played a decisive role Through an outline of the uneven histories of Mongolian expansion New World discoveries Ottoman Habsburg rivalry the development of the Asian colonies and bourgeois revolutions Alexander Anievas and Kerem Nisancioglu provide an account of how these diverse events and processes came together to produce capitalism Handbook on the Politics of Memory Maria Mälksoo, 2023-01-20 Providing a novel multi disciplinary theorization of memory politics this insightful Handbook brings varied literatures into a focused dialogue on the ways in which the past is remembered and how these influence transnational interstate and global politics in the present Doing Conceptual History in Africa Axel Fleisch, Rhiannon Stephens, 2018-02-21 Employing an innovative methodological toolkit Doing Conceptual History in Africa provides a refreshingly broad and interdisciplinary approach to African historical studies The studies assembled here focus on the complex role of language in Africa s historical development with a particular emphasis on pragmatics and semantics From precolonial dynamics of wealth and poverty to the conceptual foundations of nationalist movements each contribution strikes a balance between the local and the global engaging with a distinctively African intellectual tradition while analyzing the regional and global contexts in which categories like work marriage and land take shape Postcolonial Liberalism Duncan Ivison, 2002-11-26 This book presents an account of postcolonial liberalism and argues the case for its sustainability

Between History and Literature Siddharth Satpathy, Girish D. Pawar, 2025-06-30 This book explores the value of bhasa literature through the lens of Dipesh Chakrabarty's scholarship offering a nuanced perspective on his passionate engagement with literature at large and with Bengali literature in particular. These essays dedicated to Chakrabarty in different ways extend Chakrabarty's preoccupation with the relationship between history and literature and with the subject of modernity in India. The themes covered in this book are wide ranging from the modern reception of Sarala Das's Mahabharata and a revisionist reading of Ismat Chughtai's Lihaff to studies of agrarian representations in colonial Bengal and the printing cultures of Bareilly including the Hindi translation of Benjamin Franklin's biography from early account of colonial bureaucrats engagement with Gujarati kavya and itihasa in compiling modern histories to the study of the formation of a sonic theology in early modern Bengal from the genesis and reception history of Vande Mataram to an account of the evolution of a modern Bengali vocabulary which enabled vernacular geographers in the nineteenth century to represent the imperial global world. This volume will be of particular interest to students and researchers in South Asian studies history literary theory and postcolonial studies. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of South Asian History and Culture.

Asianism and the Politics of Regional Consciousness in Singapore Leong Yew, 2013-11-20 Over the last two decades Singapore has undergone a substantial degree of Asianization. Apart from participating in the Asian values debate of the 1990s re-visioning itself as New Asia and a global Asian hub and establishing Asian identities for the commodities it consumes and produces Singapore has also repurposed its modernity cultures and ethos along similar regionalist precepts. However even in recent times Singapore continues to vacillate ambivalently between identifying with and differentiating itself from Asia. Responding to the challenges Singapore faces in coming to terms with its Asian identity this book examines the complex cultural social and political underpinnings that have shaped Singapore's mainstream discourse on Asia. Indeed it argues that its legacy as a colonial port city the exigencies of managing the post independence nation state and the larger forces of imperialism and capitalism all contribute to its politics of Asianism. Taking a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach that spans history cultural studies postcolonialism and cultural geography Leong Yew reveals how Asia has been used to narrate Singapore's beginnings revalidate Singaporean ethnic culture and to consolidate its practices of consumption and commodification. This book will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a range of fields including Asian culture and society Asian politics cultural theory and postcolonial studies.

The Debate on Postcolonial Theory and the Specter of Capital Rosie Warren, 2016-12-13 Leading thinkers critiques of award winning Postcolonial Theory as well as the author's responses and reformulations. Vivek Chibber's Postcolonial Theory and the Specter of Capital was hailed on publication as without any doubt a bomb and the most substantive effort to dismantle the field through historical reasoning published to date. It immediately unleashed one of the most important recent debates in social theory ranging across the humanities and social sciences on the status of postcolonial studies modernity and much else. This book brings together major critics of Chibber's work to assess the efficacy of his argument from differing perspectives Included are Chibber's own spirited responses and reformulations in light of these criticisms With contributions by Partha Chatterjee Gayatri Spivak Bruce Robbins Ho-fung Hung William H Sewell Jr Bruce Cumings George Steinmetz Michael Schwartz David Pederson Stein Sundstøl Eriksen and Achin Vanaik Untimely Matter in the Time of Shakespeare Jonathan Gil Harris, 2010-11-24 Selected by Choice magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title The New Historicism of the 1980s and early 1990s was preoccupied with the fashioning of early modern subjects But Jonathan Gil Harris notes the pronounced tendency now is to engage with objects From textiles to stage beards to furniture objects are read by literary critics as closely as literature used to be For a growing number of Renaissance and Shakespeare scholars the play is no longer the thing the thing is the thing Curiously the current wave of thing studies has largely avoided posing questions of time How do we understand time through a thing What is the time of a thing In Untimely Matter in the Time of Shakespeare Harris challenges the ways we conventionally understand physical objects and their relation to history Turning to Renaissance theories of matter Harris considers the profound untimeliness of things focusing particularly on Shakespeare's stage materials He reveals that many Renaissance objects were actually survivals from an older time the medieval monastic properties that post Reformation were recycled as stage props in the public playhouses or the old Roman walls of London still visible in Shakespeare's time Then as now old objects were inherited recycled repurposed they were polytemporal or palimpsested By treating matter as dynamic and temporally hybrid Harris addresses objects in their futurity not just in their encapsulation of the past Untimely Matter in the Time of Shakespeare is a bold study that puts the material the explosive world changing potential back into a material culture that has been too often understood as inert stuff Civilizational Discourses in Weapons Control Ritu Mathur, 2020-07-11 This book seeks to decolonize practices of arms control and disarmament In this endeavor it seeks to problematize our understanding of time and civilization as rhetorical resources The need for such an undertaking can be premised on the claim that while problems of modernity ethnocentrism and universalism are now a central concern within the field of international relations these ideas are scarcely debated or contested within the field of arms control and disarmament The singular focus on technological innovations and specific policy oriented agreements in practices of arms control and disarmament appears to stymie the need for such engagements This book is an invitation to explore intersecting discourses on colonialism racialism nationalism and humanitarianism within a historically grounded terrain of weapons control An understanding of these practices is vital not to prescribe any standards of civilization or exceptionalism in weapons control but to be cognizant through critique of the dangers embedded in any effort at reconstellating the constitutional nuclear order Deconstructing Whiteness, Empire and Mission Anthony G Reddie, Carol Troupe, 2023-07-28 What happens when go make disciples meets Black Lives Matter Arising from the Council for World Mission's Legacies of Slavery project this book offers an unapologetic exploration of Christian Mission and its

Southeast European Studies in a Globalizing World Christian Promitzer, Siegfried Gruber, Harald Heppner, 2014 Since the early 1990s Southeast European studies have undergone profound changes being shaped by the wars of Yugoslav succession and the ramifications of post socialism coupled with democratic deficiencies which characterize most of Southeast Europe The countries which it encompasses rest uneasily on the periphery of the developed variant of Western capitalism but they have nonetheless to contend with the challenges of adjusting to a market economy The imprint of these contexts on academic research has led to a discussion of the role of Southeast European studies It is the task of this volume to summarize and raise awareness of this discussion Series Studies on South East Europe Vol 16 Subject European Studies Sociology Politics

Interreligious Comparisons in Religious Studies and Theology Perry Schmidt-Leukel, Andreas Nehring, 2016-07-14 Can religions be compared For decades the discipline of religious studies was based on the assumption that they can Postmodern and postcolonial reflections however raised significant doubts In social and cultural studies the investigation of the particular often took precedence over a comparative perspective Interreligious Comparisons in Religious Studies and Theology questions whether religious studies can survive if it ceases to be comparative religion Can it do justice to a globalized world if it is limited on the specific and turns a blind eye on the general While comparative approaches have come under strong pressure in religious studies they have started flourishing in Theology Comparative theology practices interfaith dialogue by means of comparative research This volume asks whether theology and religious studies are able to mutually benefit from their critical and constructive reflections Can postcolonial criticism of neutrality and objectivity in religious studies create new links with the decidedly perspectival approach of comparative theology In this collection scholars from theology and religious studies discuss the methodology of interreligious comparison in the light of recent doubts and current objections Together with the contributors Perry Schmidt Leukel and Andreas Nehring argue that after decades of critique interreligious comparison deserves to be reconsidered reconstructed and reintroduced

Modernity in Islamic Tradition Florian Zemmin, 2018-07-23 What does it mean to be modern This study regards the concept of society as foundational to modern self understanding Identifying Arabic conceptualizations of society in the journal al Manar the mouthpiece of Islamic reformism the author shows how modernity was articulated from within an Islamic discursive tradition The fact that the classical term umma was a principal term used to conceptualize modern society suggests the convergence of discursive traditions in modernity rather than a mere diffusion of European concepts Reframing Rhetorical History Kathleen J. Turner, Jason Edward Black, 2022-05-17 Collection of essays that reassesses history as rhetoric and rhetorical history as practice Liberalism and Colonial Violence Hellena Moon, 2023-01-31 This book explores the aporias of liberal democracy freedom care and justice with the seemingly at odds ideas of neoliberal fascism racism sexism and other forms of violence As Derrick Bell and others have argued that racism is inherent in US democracy I examine the intertwined concepts of justice and freedom with fascist ideas that unsettle democratic practices of freedom and political equality There is ongoing tension that uproots democratic practices driven by the very ideals of democracy itself Freedom is acquired for one group while circumscribing it for others In analyzing the troubling neoliberal fascist leanings of our times I explore the origins of US liberalism to diagnose our current state of politico theological abyss In that regard our own field of pastoral care needs to address its complicity in the current devolving situation of the neoliberal fascist ideologies in US society Fascist and nationalist ideologies rely foremost on perpetuating mythic ideologies masking reality and controlling our epistemologies In charting a new genealogy for spiritual care I argue that the image of care as articulated by W E B DuBois one of Third World liberation that addresses the decoloniality of the entombed soul should be the primary genealogy of spiritual care for our field today
