Wolman, 1973 The Christian Century ,1960 Siblings in Tolstoy and Dostoevsky Anna A. Berman, 2015-09-30 Anna A Berman s book brings to light the significance of sibling relationships in the writings of Tolstoy and Dostoevsky Relationships in their works have typically been studied through the lens of erotic love in the former and intergenerational conflict in the latter In close readings of their major novels Berman shows how both writers portray sibling relationships as a stabilizing force that counters the unpredictable often destructive elements of romantic entanglements and the hierarchical structure of generations Power and interconnectedness are cast in a new light Berman persuasively argues that both authors gradually come to consider siblinghood a model of all human relations discerning a career arc in each that moves from the dynamics within families to a much broader vision of universal brotherhood Interdisciplinary Journal for Germanic Linguistics and Semiotic Analysis ,1997 Innovation in Ethnographic Film Peter Loizos, 1993-07-15 In the first comprehensive introduction to the nature and development of ethnographic film Peter Loizos reviews fifty of the most important films made between 1955 and 1985 Going beyond programmatic statements he analyzes the films themselves identifying and discussing their contributions to ethnographic documentation Loizos begins by reviewing works of John Marshall and Timothy Asch in the 1950s and moves through those of Jean Rouch Robert Gardner and many more recent filmmakers He reveals a steady course of innovations along four dimensions production technology subject matter strategies of argument and ethnographic authentication His analyses of individual films address questions of realism authenticity genre authorial and subjective voice and representation of the films creators as well as their subjects Innovation in Ethnographic Film as a systematic and illuminating review of developments in ethnographic film will be an important resource for the growing number of anthropologists and other scholars who use such films as tools for research and teaching Narrative Dynamics in Paul Bruce W.
