Foreign Office, 1969 Cyril of Alexandria and the Nestorian Controversy Susan Wessel, 2004-10-28 What were the historical and cultural processes by which Cyril of Alexandria was elevated to canonical status while his opponent Nestorius bishop of Constantinople was made into a heretic In contrast to previous scholarship Susan Wessel concludes that Cyril s success in being elevated to orthodox status was not simply a political accomplishment based on political alliances he had fashioned as opportunity arose Nor was it a dogmatic victory based on the clarity and orthodoxy of Cyril s doctrinal claims Instead it was his strategy in identifying himself with the orthodoxy of the former bishop of Alexandria Athanasius in his victory over Arianism in borrowing Athanasius interpretive methods and in skilfully using the tropes and figures of the second sophistic that made Cyril a saint in the Greek and Coptic Orthodox Churches Index to the Correspondence of the Foreign Office Great Britain. Foreign Office, 1969 Global Sceptical Publics Jacob Copeman, Mascha Schulz , 2022-12-08 Global Sceptical Publics is the first major study of the significance of different media for the re production of non religious publics and publicity While much work has documented how religious subjectivities are shaped by media until now the crucial role of diverse media for producing and participating in religion sceptical publics and debates has remained under researched With some chapters focusing on locations hitherto barely considered by scholarship on non religion the book places in comparative perspective how atheists secularists and humanists engage with media as means of communication and forming non religious publics but also on occasion as something to be resisted Its conceptually rich interdisciplinary chapters thereby contribute important new insights to the growing field of non religion studies and to scholarship on media and materiality more generally
