The Best Psychic Stories Joseph Lewis French, 2021-01-01 First published in the year 1920 the present book The Best Psychic Stories was written by Joseph Lewis French This book is a collection of fictional psychological short stories The Best Psychic Stories Joseph Lewis French, 1920 The case for the psychic element in literature rests on a very old foundation it reaches back to the ancient masters the men who wrote the Greek tragedies Remorse will ever seem commonplace alongside the furies Ever and always the shadow of the supernatural invites pursues us As the art of literature has progressed it has grown along with it To day there is a whole new school of writers of Ghost Stories and the domain of the invisible is being invaded by explorers in many paths We do not believe so much more perhaps that is we do not so openly express a belief but art has finally and frankly claimed the supernatural for its own It only remains to be added that the present great interest in spiritualism and allied phenomena has made necessary the addition of certain material of a literal character which we believe will be found quite as interesting by the general reader as the purely literary portion of the book Imaginary

Conversations With Famous People Jack J. Flynn Sr., 2017-06-21 The conversations are imaginary as the title says The meeting place is purgatory or Summerland The people here men have survived the grave That is a big issue Many who died are atheists and can hardly believe they are still alive and they linger in the corners up there until their minds are clear Women are separated from the men They are being treated in another part of purgatory The average time a person spends there is about 150 years So that is a lot of time for most of them to World's Greatest Horror Stories: Collection of 42

of the Sea and Sky, Desert Places, Oriental Stories, Adventures within Walls, Ghost Stories, Detective and Riddle Stories, Psychic Stories, Mystic-Humorous Stories Various Authors, Very much of this story must remain untold for the reason that if it were definitely known what business I had aboard the tramp steam freighter Glarus three hundred miles off the South American coast on a certain summer s day some few years ago I would very likely be obliged to answer a great many personal and direct questions put by fussy and impertinent experts in maritime law who are paid to be inquisitive Also I would get Ally Bazan Strokher and Hardenberg into trouble Suppose on that certain summer s day you had asked of Lloyds s agency where the Glarus was and what was her destination and cargo You would have been told that she was twenty days out from Callao bound North to San Francisco in ballast that she had been spoken by the bark Medea and the steamer Benevento that she was reported to have blown out a cylinder head but being manageable was proceeding on her way under sail That is what Lloyds s would have answered If you know something of the ways of ships and what is expected of them you will understand that the Glarus to be some half a dozen hundred miles south of where Lloyds s would have her and to be still going South under full steam was a scandal that would have made her brothers and sisters ostracize her finally and forever And that is curious too Humans may indulge in vagaries innumerable and may go far afield in the way of lying but a ship may not so much as quibble without suspicion The least lapse of regularity the least difficulty in squaring performance with intuition and behold she is on the black list and her captain owners officers agents and consignors and even supercargoes are asked to explain And the Glarus was already on the black list From the beginning her stars had been malign As the Breda she had first lost her reputation seduced into a filibustering escapade down the South American coast where in the end a plain clothes United States detective that is to say a revenue cutter arrested her off Buenos Ayres and brought her home a prodigal daughter besmirched and disgraced After that she was in some dreadful blackbirding business in a far quarter of the South Pacific and after that her name changed finally to the Glarus poached seals for a syndicate of Dutchmen who lived in Tacoma and who afterward built a clubhouse out of what she earned

Mindsweepers Nicole Jalonon,2012-04-10 When an eleven years old girl named Teagan wakes terrified of a dream she has had about the parents who abandoned her for her uncle to raise Her uncle Dunkan after hearing about this dream whisks her away from her home and to live with a stranger in the middle of the night Now in Bangor Maine where Teagans favorite author Steven King lives the young girl gets pulled into one mystery after the other steaming from the question What scared her uncle so bad about a mysterious phone call he got before they left their home town the night she had that dream Then Teagan starts hearing voices that no one else can hear and throwing objects with her mind But when she tells her uncle about all this he admits her to an asylum where a mystery man says he is her real father To find the truth Teagan must find out if she really has magic or if she s going crazy and hallucinating the voices and above all who she can trust if she can even trust her uncle With all this happening to her can she stay sane and survive
