Svi Shapiro, 2006-08-15 In this book Svi Shapiro explores the ideological and attitudinal functions of schools looking especially at what is called the hidden curriculum He offers both an analysis of the role of education in producing and maintaining attitudes and values that contribute to our competitive socially unequal instrumental consumerist and self oriented culture and a radically different vision for what our schools should be about a vision that focuses on education s role in supporting a more critically reflective socially responsible and compassionate culture Federal and state legislation have propelled schools today in the direction of an increasingly test driven instrumental and individually competitive regime Under these legislative mandates schools are increasingly alienating and stressful places for both students and teachers Most disturbing is that this form of education is not conducive to providing young people with the capacity to cope with the moral cultural spiritual and political challenges of the world they inhabit More than only offering a critique of schools Shapiro proposes a counter vision that can lead to a different kind of culture and society and he discusses strategies for advocating and implementing it Written in a style that is very accessible to a wide range of readers Losing Heart The Moral and Spiritual Miseducation of America s Children is also carefully researched and draws on relevant theory to make a strong case This book speaks to a wide range of readers including academics and students in education sociology anthropology political science and cultural studies public school professionals and the general public interested in education It will appeal to faculty in schools of education who are looking for a text that offers both a critical language and

Mortensen, 2006 Human Conflict distinguishes between effective and ineffective forms of face to face interaction in cases where agreement disagreement understanding or misunderstanding prevail Following an in depth look at the interplay of cognitive appraisals value orientations and social identity in the construction of everyday reality the book analyzes social constructions that contribute to a wider ability to fashion working agreements and mutual understanding Scholars of conflict study mediators and others interested in the cognitive processes behind agreement and understanding will enjoy this book Visit our website for sample chapters Can Saul Alinsky Be Saved? Richard William Bledsoe, 2014-12-18 Revolutionary France of 1789 was the world's first post Christian society Leftism is an ersatz religion and France became the world's first Leftist nation Leftism is faux Christianity America is today becoming a post Christian society under a similar imitation of Christianity One of the truisms of such a society is that one can now hide behind the pretense of openness Shame which would have previously kept certain things hidden is now the only thing of which we are ashamed One can be completely open about all matters sexual for frankness about everything is now valued Yet such cultures only develop new ways of being hidden One hides in plain sight in modern America One goes on television the Internet and to publishing houses to tell all using the facade of boldness and frankness to remain hidden Openness is a cover and it is a cover for emptiness We no longer know who where or what we are We have lost ourselves Midnight Crystal Jayne Castle, 2010-08-31 It began with Krentz continued with Quick and now it will end with Castle Book Three of the Dreamlight trilogy For many earthly centuries a legendary curse has plagued the Winters family stemming from the tumultuous founding of the Arcane Society But now on the futuristic world of Harmony the curse's final mystery will be unraveled Head of the ghost hunters guild Adam Winters and dreamlight reader extraordinaire Marlowe Jones must break the curse save Harmony's entire underworld and fight a passion that could destroy them both Watch a Video Hans Blumenberg's History and Philosophy of Science Alberto Frago, Josefa Ros Velasco, Martina Philippi, Cornelius Borck, 2025-01-31 This book highlights and develops a hitherto neglected area of Hans Blumenberg's contributions i.e. history and philosophy of science It covers both Blumenberg's works on the history of ideas and conceptual change as well as his studies on transformative periods and his intellectual history of technology Hans Blumenberg 1920-1996 was one of the leading German philosophers after the Second World War bridging from the continental tradition of philosophy conceptual history and metaphorology This volume though explores the methodological instruments that he developed and how we may use them to do history and philosophy of science In doing so it opens up a new field of research and provides insight into further developing a continental history and philosophy of science making this book of great interest to both historians and philosophers alike Suicide in Nazi Germany Christian Goeschel, 2015 The suicides of Hitler Goebbels Bormann Himmler and later Goering at the end of World War II were only the most prominent in a suicide epidemic that has no historical parallel and that can tell us much about the Third Reich's peculiar self destructiveness and the depths of Nazi fanaticism Looking at the suicides of both Nazis and ordinary people in Germany from the end of World War I until the end of World War II Christian Goeschel shows how suicides among different population groups including supporters opponents and victims of the regime responded to the social cultural economic and political context of the time Richly grounded in gripping and previously unpublished source material Suicide in Nazi Germany offers a new perspective on the central social and political crises of the era from revolution economic collapse and the rise of the Nazis to Germany's total defeat in 1945

Critically Capitalist Bohyeong Kim, 2025-01-15 Critically Capitalist presents an ethnography of South Korea's asset seekers including amateur stock investors real estate enthusiasts and money coaches to demonstrate how financialized asset capitalism is sustained As they hunt for profit margins rent and dividends they simultaneously critique capitalism and posit their pursuit of assets as a form of resistance Bohyeong Kim theorizes this new spirit of capitalism in South Korea as critical capitalism arguing that it reflects the popular discontent with both national development and financial neoliberalism As a paradoxical critique and legitimation Bohyeong Kim argues that critical capitalism valorizes the capitalist economy not through a triumphant narrative but by highlighting the emotional wounds destroyed communities and oppressive tactics of modern capitalism Drawing on multi sited ethnography and in depth interviews with a broad community of aspiring millionaires Critically Capitalist illuminates how contemporary capitalism thrives by channeling discontent into financial and real estate markets which in turn has cemented critical capitalism as the cultural and affective backbone of South Korea's economy

The Moral Self Pauline Chazan,2002-11-01 The Moral Self addresses the question of how morality enters into our lives Pauline Chazan draws upon psychology, rational philosophy and literary interpretation to rebut the view that morality's role is to limit desire and control self-love Preserving the ancients' connection between what is good for the self and what is morally good Chazan argues that a certain kind of care for the self is central to moral agency Her intriguing argument begins with a critical examination of the views of Hume, Rousseau and Hegel The constructive part of the book takes a more unusual turn by synthesising the work on the analyst Heinz Kohut and Aristotle into Chazan's own positive account which is then illustrated by the use of Russian literature

An Unchosen People Kenneth B. Moss,2021-12-14 A revisionist account of interwar Europe's largest Jewish community that upends histories of Jewish agency to rediscover reckonings with nationalism's pathologies diaspora's fragility Zionism's promises and the necessity of choice What did the future hold for interwar Europe's largest Jewish community the font of global Jewish hopes When intrepid analysts asked these questions on the cusp of the 1930s they discovered a Polish Jewry reckoning with no tomorrow Assailed by antisemitism and witnessing liberalism's collapse some Polish Jews looked past progressive hopes or religious certainties to investigate what the nation state was becoming what powers minority communities really possessed and where a future might be found and for whom The story of modern Jewry is often told as one of creativity and contestation Kenneth B Moss traces instead a late Jewish reckoning with diasporic vulnerability nationalism's terrible potencies Zionism's promises and the necessity of choice Moss examines the works of Polish Jewry's most searching thinkers as they confronted political irrationality state crisis and the limits of resistance He reconstructs the desperate creativity of activists seeking to counter despair where they could not redress its causes And he recovers a lost grassroots history of critical thought and political searching among ordinary Jews young and powerless as they struggled to find a viable future for themselves in Palestine if not in Poland individually if not communally Focusing not on ideals but on a search for realism Moss recasts the history of modern Jewish political thought Where much scholarship seeks Jewish agency over a collective future An Unchosen People recovers a darker tradition characterized by painful tradeoffs amid a harrowing political reality making Polish Jewry a paradigmatic example of the minority experience endemic to the nation state
