A Geographical Guide to the Real and the Good Robert David Sack, 2003 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Reality's Pen Thomas D. Rush, 2012-10-02 Reality's Pen portrays the Eastside of Asheville NC as a mother who provides a safe cocoon filled with neighborly concern and care This location aka The Hill is a place of magic with a sense of community pervading the air This comfortable milieu flung author Thomas D Rush out into the world like a cultural arrow aimed at intriguing future events From a 1989 one on one prophetic conversation with the first African American President of the United States to a mystical revelation from a mentor to Martin Luther King Jr Reality's Pen provides a mesmerizing tapestry of reflections Rush includes his timely residence in celebratory Chicago along with an enticing view of fellow North Carolinian Michael Jordan as Jordan led his Chicago Bulls to their first NBA championship The Map Reader Martin Dodge, Rob Kitchin, Chris Perkins, 2011-05-09 WINNER OF THE CANTEMIR PRIZE 2012 awarded by the Berendel Foundation The Map Reader brings together for the first time classic and hard to find articles on mapping This book provides a wide ranging and coherent edited compendium of key scholarly writing about the changing nature of cartography over the last half century The editorial selection of fifty four theoretical and thought provoking texts demonstrates how cartography works as a powerful representational form and explores how different mapping practices have been conceptualised in particular scholarly contexts Themes covered include paradigms politics people aesthetics and technology Original interpretative essays set the literature into intellectual context within these themes Excerpts are drawn from leading scholars and researchers in a range of cognate fields including Cartography Geography Anthropology Architecture Engineering Computer Science and Graphic Design The Map Reader provides a new unique single source reference to the essential literature in the cartographic field more than fifty specially edited excerpts from key classic articles and monographs critical introductions by experienced experts in the field focused coverage of key mapping practices techniques and ideas a valuable resource suited to a broad spectrum of researchers and students working in cartography and GIScience geography the social sciences media studies and visual arts full page colour illustrations of significant maps as provocative visual think pieces fully indexed clearly structured and accessible ways into a fast changing field of cartographic research Layamon's Brut Frances Lytle Gillespie, 1914 The Fortnightly Review, 1913 The Ground Beneath the Cross Kevin F. Burke, 2000-02-04 This book is the first comprehensive analysis of the thought of Ignacio Ellacur a the Jesuit philosopher theologian martyred for his work on behalf of Latin America's oppressed peoples While serving as president of the Jesuit run University of Central America in the midst of El Salvador's brutal civil war Ellacur a was also a prolific writer His advocacy on behalf of the country's persecuted majority provoked the enmity of the Salvadoran political establishment On November 16 1989 members of the Salvadoran military entered the university's campus and murdered Ellacur a along with five other Jesuit priests and two women Kevin F Burke SJ shows why Ellacur a is significant not only as a martyr but also as a theologian Ellacur a effectively integrated philosophy history anthropology and sociopolitical analysis into his theological reflections on salvation spirituality and the church to create an original contribution to liberation theology Ellacur a s writings directly address one of the most vexing issues in theology today can theologians account for the demands arising from both the particularity of their various social historical situations and also the universal claims of Christian revelation Burke explains how Ellacur a bases theology in a philosophy of historical reality the ground beneath the cross and interprets the suffering of the crucified peoples in the light of Jesus crucifixion Ellacur a thus inserts the theological realities of salvation and transcendence squarely within the course of human events and he connects these to the Christian mandate to take the crucified peoples down from their crosses Placing Ellacur a s thought in the context of historical trends within the Roman Catholic Church particularly Vatican II and the rise of liberation theology in Latin America Burke argues that Ellacur a makes a distinctive contribution to contemporary Catholic theology

Experience, Evidence, and Sense

Anna Wierzbicka, 2010-06-24 This book is based on two ideas first that any language English no less than any other represents a universe of meaning shaped by the history and experience of the men and women who have created it and second that in any language certain culture specific words act as linchpins for whole networks of meanings and that penetrating the meanings of those key words can therefore open our eyes to an entire cultural universe In this book Anna Wierzbicka demonstrates that three uniquely English words evidence experience and sense are exactly such linchpins Using a rigorous plain language approach to meaning analysis she unpacks the dense cultural meanings of these key words disentangles their multiple meanings and traces their origins back to the tradition of British empiricism In so doing she reveals much about cultural attitudes embedded not only in British and American English but also English as a global language An interdisciplinary work Experience Evidence and Sense will be of interest to both scholars and students in linguistics and English as well as historians of ideas sociologists anthropologists literary scholars and scholars of communication
