Bad Boy of Gospel Music Russ Cheatham,2010-03-05 I messed up Calvin Newton lamented after wasting thirty years and doing time in both state and federal prisons for theft counterfeiting and drug violations These were years of my life that I could have been singing gospel music During his prime he was super handsome athletic and charged with sexual charisma that attracted women to him like flies to honey Atop this abundance was his astounding voice the voice of an angel This book is his prodigal son story Audacious Newton never turned down a dare even if it meant climbing on the roof of a speeding car or wading into a freezing ocean As a boy boxer he was a Kentucky Golden Gloves champ who knocked his opponent in twenty three seconds By his late teens he had been recruited by the Blackwood Brothers the number one gospel quartet in the world In his mid twenties while he was singing Christian songs with the Oak Ridge Quartet Newton's mighty talent and movie star looks took him deep into hedonism reckless driving heavy romancing and addictive pill popping As 1950s rock n roll began its invasion of gospel he and two partners formed the Sons of Song the first all male gospel trio Long before the pop sound claimed contemporary Christian music the Sons of Song turned gospel upside down with histrionic harmony high styled tuxedos and Hollywood verve Their signature song Wasted Years foreshadowed Newton's punishing fall This biography looks back at the destructive lifestyle that wrecked a sparkling career When well into his sixties Newton turned his life around and was able to confront his demons and discuss his prodigal days He talked extensively with Russ Cheatham about his self destruction and the great personal expense of his own bad boy choices and late redemption In this candid biography one of gospel's all stars discloses a messed up life that vacillated between achievement and failure fame and infamy happiness and grief
