Really Bad News:

Real Life Moments J. Mark Fox, 2008 One of the most challenging things I have faced as the husband of one wife and the father of five boys and two girls is the same thing you have faced no matter how many children you have It is a constant challenge to be the husband and the father we are called by God to be and to give our wife and children what they need us to give This book is designed to be read by the dad who is busy making a living at a job but does not want to overlook making a life at home My hope is that each story will make you laugh or think or even cry and that God will use this book to encourage you in your own journey as a godly man There are fifty two life lessons in this book one for each week of the year They are not dated so you can start anytime in the year and use it for the next 52 weeks Or you can read the lessons in 52 days if you like Or 52 hours Hey you could probably read through the whole book in about 52 minutes but I don't think you would be able to do all the action items that fast Nor would you want to At the end of each lesson there is a prayer you can read as an encouragement to your own heart's cry to the Lord There is also an action item that exhorts you to do something in response to what you just read Hey I'm a guy too I know the tendency we guys have to believe that just thinking about something or just hearing a good idea and agreeing with it is equivalent to actually DOING it Sorry I wish it were so but that's just not going to fly Go ahead and check your bags with Reality Airlines and follow through on those good intentions you have entertained for years This book I hope will help you to do that If nothing else you will have a collection of wild and funny and sobering stories to share with your family around the supper table Or if you are a pastor or a teacher these pages can help you illustrate biblical truths in your next sermon or Sunday School lesson No matter how you use this book my prayer is that it will be a blessing to you And I would love to hear from you Feel free to email me at markfox@antiochchurch.cc You can visit the church website at www.antiochchurch.cc I look forward to it Mark

Fibkins, 2013-03-08 With budget cuts looming every year administrators and union leaders find themselves in a never ending game of promoting how good their school is and why budget cuts will derail their ongoing success The vehicle they choose for this ongoing self promotion is what William Fibkins calls the dazzle approach which focuses only on good news Overtime administrators and staff often come to believe the positive reviews of the good news process and overlook or abandon those students who don't make good news but instead act out, fail, cause trouble and give the school a bad name. These are the bad news kids and their lives are not newsworthy. This book is about the unintended consequences that can occur when the good news process becomes heavily embedded in school life, a process that creates two different worlds in a school community that often prides itself on fostering unity and belonging. The school media promotions may say "All is well here" but this positive spin belies the divisions that breed isolation and estrangement for both the good news and bad news kids, which gives rise to class warfare in the school community. In a culture in which some students are valued as more worthy than others, being a more worthy student can have a serious downside that is as risky as being an unworthy student. This book explores these often hidden consequences and what school and community leaders need to do to right this sinking ship, a ship that seems sturdy and well built to onlookers but is abusing its crew to keep afloat. Some schools operate on a system which uses high achieving students as a commodity to pass school budgets and downplays the cries of troubled students to be included in their school. Good news gets headlines while bad news is shifted to the back page or left out, resulting in an "all is well" problem-free picture of the school.

At the Heart of Every Great Father Clark Cothorn, 2011-02-02. What character qualities can be found in every great father? Love, patience, gentleness, faithfulness, self-control, the fruits of the Spirit, in fact. And the One who produces that fruit in us is the One who is At the Heart of Every Great Father. Clark Cothorn shows dads how to be truly great fathers, no matter how old their kids are, by allowing the Father to cultivate His character in them. Powerful, straight talking stories in each chapter are guaranteed to grab men's attention, entertain them and inspire them to be better dads by actually showing, not just describing, great fathering in action.

Christians Are Hate-Filled Hypocrites...and Other Lies You've Been Told Bradley R.E. Wright, Ph.D., 2010-07-01. According to the media, the church is rapidly shrinking both in numbers and in effectiveness. But the good news is, much of the bad news is wrong. Sociologist Bradley R. E. Wright uncovers what's really happening in the church: evangelicals are more respected by secular culture now than they were ten years ago; divorce rates of Christians are lower than those who aren't affiliated with a religion; young evangelicals are active in the faith. Wright reveals to readers why and how statistics are distorted and shows that God is still effectively working through his people today.

Beyond Resilience Leda Glyptis, 2025-01-27. Is success pattern based? Is the journey of successfully building new banks or services, either from scratch or in the context of a going concern, predictable enough to be repeatable? And if there are patterns, are they within our gift to replicate? Beyond Resilience: Patterns of Success in Fintech and Digital Transformation asks these questions and seeks answers among the people who have first-hand experience of building new things and who live to tell the tale.
