Krithman, 1996 How do human societies leave their mark on the world so they are not forgotten This is a collection of work by leading French intellectuals exploring the statues cathedrals palaces rituals legends and events of history that form the architecture of the French collective consciousness

Geography of Time, Place, Movement and Networks, Volume 3 Stanley D. Brunn, 2024-05-23 This volume discusses the intersections of multiple human journeys and the importance of places and place settings such as battlefield re enactments heritage fairs pilgrimage sites and faith journeys The chapters in this book describe among others racial history tourism music festivals which are frequent time journeys attracting local and regional audiences as well as art journeys displayed in museums whereby place plays an important role in how journeys of the soul culture and state are intersected displayed and remembered The book also provides insight into how the worlds of art narratives and images are evident in how youth draw and depict climate change re inventing the past for commercial tourism income and re interpreting history for contemporary cultures It shows how global warming is also a journey that is both intellectual and environmental and how politics is an important part of any constructed and reconstructed journey Memory Susannah Radstone, Bill

Schwarz, 2010 These essays survey the histories the theories and the fault lines that compose the field of memory research Drawing on the advances in the sciences and in the humanities they address the question of how memory works highlighting transactions between the interiority of subjective memory and the larger fields of public or collective memory The Politics of National Celebrations in the Arab Middle East Elie Podeh, 2011-06-30 The first systematic study of the role of celebrations and public holidays in the Arab Middle East Memory Activism Yifat Gutman, 2021-04-30 SAGE Memory Studies Journal Memory Studies Association Outstanding First Book Award Honorable Mention 2019 Set in Israel in the first decade of the twenty first century and based on long term fieldwork this rich ethnographic study offers an innovative analysis of the Israeli Palestinian conflict It explores practices of memory activism by three groups of Jewish Israeli and Arab Palestinian citizens Zochrot Autobiography of a City and Baladna showing how they appropriated the global model of truth and reconciliation while utilizing local cultural practices such as tours and testimonies These activist efforts gave visibility to a silenced Palestinian history in order to come to terms with the conflict s origins and envision a new resolution for the future This unique focus on memory as a weapon of the weak reveals a surprising shift in awareness of Palestinian suffering among the Jewish majority of Israeli society in a decade of escalating violence and polarization albeit not without a backlash Contested memories saturate this society The 1948 war is remembered as both Independence Day by Israelis and al Nakba the catastrophe by Palestinians The walking tour and survivor testimonies originally deployed by the state for national Zionist education that marginalized Palestinian citizens are now being appropriated by activists for tours of pre state Palestinian villages and testimonies by refugees Revolution Enzo Traverso, 2024-04-30 Brilliant and beautiful Now this book exists it s hard to know how we did without it China Mi ville author of October A cultural and intellectual balance sheet of the twentieth century s age of revolutions This book reinterprets the history of nineteenth and twentieth century revolutions by composing a constellation of dialectical images Marx s locomotives of history Alexandra Kollontai s sexually liberated bodies Lenin s mummified body Auguste Blanqui s barricades and red flags the Paris Commune s demolition of the Vendome Column among several others It connects theories with the existential trajectories of the thinkers who elaborated them by sketching the diverse profiles of revolutionary intellectuals from Marx and Bakunin to Luxemburg and the Bolsheviks from Mao and Ho Chi Minh to Jos Carlos Mari tegui C L R James and other rebellious spirits from the South as outcasts and pariahs And finally it analyzes the entanglement between revolution and communism that so deeply shaped the history of the twentieth century This book thus merges ideas and representations by devoting an equal importance to theoretical and iconographic sources offering for our troubled present a new intellectual history of the revolutionary past

Chartism, Commemoration and the Cult of the Radical Hero Matthew Roberts, 2019-08-15 Chartism the British mass movement for democratic and social rights in the 1830s and 1840s was profoundly shaped by the radical tradition from which it emerged Yet little attention has been paid to how Chartists saw themselves in relation to this diverse radical tradition or to the ways in which they invented their own tradition Paine Cobbett and other founding fathers dead and alive were used and in some cases abused by Chartists in their own attempts to invent a radical tradition By drawing on new and exciting work in the fields of visual and material culture cultures of heroism memory and commemoration critical heritage studies and the history of political thought this book explores the complex cultural work that radical heroes were made to perform

Building and Remembering Chris Urwin, 2023-02-28 Building and Remembering is a multidisciplinary study of how memory works in relation to the material past Based on collaborative ethnoarchaeological research carried out in Orokelo Bay Papua New Guinea Chris Urwin explores oral traditions maintained and produced in relation to artifacts and stratigraphy He shows how cultivation and construction bring people from Orokelo Bay into regular contact with pottery sherds and thin layers of black sand Both the pottery and the sand are forms of material evidence that remind people of the movements and activities of their ancestors and they help sustain stories of origins and connections The sherds remind people of the layout of their ancestors villages and of the annual maritime visits by Motu people who came from 400 km to the east The black sand evokes events of the distant past when their ancestors created the land through magic Villagers in Orokelo Bay have intimate knowledge of the contents of the subsurface and places where people work and dig more regularly are thought of as especially ancient Here people conduct their own form of archaeology as part of everyday life This book interweaves such community constructions of the past with the emergence of large coastal villages in Orokelo Bay and across a broader span of the south coast of Papua New Guinea The villages housed dense populations and hosted elaborate masked ceremonies that could span decades When Sir Albert Maori Kiki the former Deputy Prime Minister moved to Orokolo Bay in the mid 1930s he was mesmerized by the place which appeared like a modern metropolis buzzing with noise and activity Yet little is known of when these villages originated or how they developed In this book archaeological digs and radiocarbon dating are used to gain insight into how several Orokolo Bay sites developed focusing on the key origin and migration village of Popo Village elders share their understandings of ancestral places during surveys and through oral traditions People lived in Popo for some five hundred years moving to through and from the estates expanding and at times shifting the village to access the social and subsistence benefits of coastal village life

Nationalism and Architecture Darren Deane, Sarah Butler, 2016-12-05 Unlike regionalism in architecture which has been widely discussed in recent years nationalism in architecture has not been so well explored and understood However the most powerful collective representation of a nation is through its architecture and how that architecture engages the global arena by expressing defining and sometimes negating a sense of nation in order to participate in the international world Bringing together case studies from Europe North and South America the Middle East Africa Asia and Australia this book provides a truly global exploration of the relationship between architecture and nationalism via the themes of regionalism and representation various national building projects ethnic and trans national expression national identities and histories of nationalist architecture and the philosophies and sociological studies of nationalism It argues that nationalism needs to be trans national as a notion to be critically understood and the geographical scope of the proposed volume reflects the continuing relevance of the topic within current architectural scholarship as an overarching notion The interdisciplinary essays are coherently grouped together in three thematic sections Revisiting Nationalism Interpreting Nationalism and Questioning Nationalism These chapters offer vignettes of the protean appearances of nationalism across nations and offer a basis of developing wider knowledge and critically situated understanding of the question beyond a singular nation's limited bounds

Resounding Pasts Drago Momcilovic, 2020-05-15 The field of memory studies has long been preoccupied with the manner in which events from the past are commemorated forgotten re-fashioned or worked through on both the individual and collective level Yet in an age when various modes of artistic and cultural commemoration have begun to overlap with and respond to one another the dynamics of cultural remembering and forgetting become bound up in an increasingly elaborate network of representations that operate both within and outside temporal cultural and national borders As publicly circulating texts that straddle the line between cultural artifact and artistic object both musical and literary works both individually and often in conjunction with one another help shape cultural memories and individual experiences of those events Troping their cultural milieux through specific aesthetic and social forms genres and modes of dissemination music and literature become part of a growing global panoply of raw materials upon which we might begin to pose questions regarding the way we remember the consequences of sharing and passing on those memories and the aesthetic and cultural pressures attendant upon the circulation and interpretation of texts that resound the past

Sport, Memory and Nationhood in Japan Andreas Niehaus, Christian Tagsold, 2013-09-13 This book clarifies and verifies the role sport has as an alternative marker in understanding and mapping memory in Japan by applying the concept of lieux de mémoire realms of memory to sport in Japan Japanese history and national construction have not been short of sports landmarks since the end of the nineteenth century Western style sports were introduced into Japan in order to modernize the country and develop a culture of consciousness about bodies resembling that of the Western world Japan's modernization has been a process of embracing Western thought and culture while at the same time attempting to establish what distinguishes Japan from the West In this context sports functioned as sites of contested identities and memories The Olympics baseball and soccer have produced memories in Japan but so too have martial arts which by their very name signify an attempt to create traditions beyond Western sports Because modern sports form bodies of modern citizens and at the same time offer countless opportunities for competition with other nations they provide an excellent ground for testing and contesting national identifications By revealing some of the key realms of memory in the Japanese field of sports this book shows how memories and counter memories of sport moments places and heroes constitute an inventory for identity This book was originally published as a special issue of Sport in Society

Memory, History, Nation Katharine Hodgkin, Susannah Radstone, 2005-10-01 The chapters in Memory History Nation written by international scholars offer a complex awareness of the workings of memory and the ways in which different or changing histories may be explained They explore the relation between individual and social memory between real and imaginary event and fantasy history and myth Contradictory accounts or memories in direct contradiction to the historical record are not always the sign of a repressive authority attempting to cover something up The tension between memory as a safeguard against attempts to silence dissenting voices and memory's own implication in that silencing runs throughout the book

Viet Nam Nhung Tuyet Tran, Anthony Reid, 2006-11-03 Moving beyond past histories of Viet Nam that have focused on nationalist struggle this volume brings together work by scholars who are re-examining centuries of Vietnamese history Crossing borders and exploring ambiguities the essays in Viet Nam Borderless Histories draw on international archives and bring a range of inventive analytical approaches to the global regional national and local narratives of Vietnamese history Among the topics explored are the extraordinary diversity between north and south lowland and highland Viet and minority and between colonial Chinese Southeast Asian and dynastic influences The result is an exciting new approach to Southeast Asia's past that uncovers the complex and rich history of Viet Nam A wonderful introduction to the exciting work that a new generation of scholars is engaging in
