Wang,2022-11-08 The Sixteenth Karmapa Rangjung Rigpe Dorje was the first Tibetan Buddhist leader to make extensive teaching tours to the West His three tours to Europe and North America from 1974 to 1980 led to the global expansion of Tibetan Buddhist schools This book presents the most in depth analysis of the Karmapa s contribution to the preservation and transmission of Tibetan Buddhism in exile It is the first study to combine Tibetan life writing and biographical materials in English with a thorough examination of the transformation of Tibetan Buddhism in the modern era of globalization Drawing on a wide range of data from written accounts collections of photographs recordings of interviews and documentaries the author discusses the life and activity of the Karmapa through the lens of cross cultural interaction between Buddhism and the West with a particular focus on Asian agency The study shows that the Karmapa s transmission strategies emphasized continuity with tradition with some openness for adaptation His traditionalist approach and his success on the global scale challenge the popular assumption that the transmission of Buddhism is primarily a matter of Westernization which in turn calls for a broader view that recognizes its complex and dynamic nature      Music and British Culture, 1785-1914

Christina Bashford,Leanne Langley,2000 This book takes the themes and approaches of Professor Cyril Ehrlich s pathbreaking work on British social history in music as its inspiration In sixteen substantial new essays all specially commissioned from cultural and musical historians it embraces the music marketplace piano culture musicians work patterns music institutions and audiences concert and repertoire history issues in performance criticism and reception gender and national and urban identities all with a clear focus on art music traditions significantly under treated by music scholars in this area The cultural importance of serious music from Belfast to Calcutta has long been assumed for the period but rarely demonstrated Here it is central interwoven with the social and economic realities confronting music people in Britain across the 19th century    At the New Theatre and Others Walter Prichard Eaton,1910    The Cambridge History of

Sixteenth-Century Music Iain Fenlon,Richard Wistreich,2019-01-24 Part of the seminal Cambridge History of Music series this volume departs from standard histories of early modern Western music in two important ways First it considers music as something primarily experienced by people in their daily lives whether as musicians or listeners and as something that happened in particular locations and different intellectual and ideological contexts rather than as a story of genres individual counties and composers and their works Second by constraining discussion within the limits of a 100 year timespan the music culture of the sixteenth century is freed from its conventional and tenuous absorption within the abstraction of the Renaissance and is understood in terms of recent developments in the broader narrative of this turbulent period of European history Both an original take on a well known period in early music and a key work of reference for scholars this volume makes an important contribution to the history of music    Metropolis and Experience Hye-Joon Yoon,2011-10-18

Metropolis and Experience Defoe Dickens Joyce offers a close reading of the major texts of Defoe Dickens and Joyce in their respective historical contexts and in comparison with their intertextual companions from seventeenth century character pamphlets through Baudelaire to Calvino In doing so it challenges the quietist complacency of specialization prevalent in current academia to contribute to a critique of urban modernity in the tradition of Simmel Benjamin and Lefebvre Taking its cue from Benjamin's bisection of experience into subjective sensory Erlebnis and communal reflective Erfahrung Metropolis and Experience uses this binary pair as a categorical guide in its analysis of the stylistic and thematic adventures of the three centerpiece authors Whereas Defoe's novels embody a Simmelian metropolitan mentality through its narration of lived experience in paratactic prose Dickens strives to humanize the sprawling Victorian metropolis into an experience for communal sharing In Joyce's works the colonial dejections and belatedness of the Hibernian metropolis are transformed into an exuberant excess where both Erlebnis and Erfahrung meet their joyous end This investigation of the interconnections between the metropolis experience and the novel takes place in tandem with a sustained query on non literary subtopics such as finance capitalism and urban class antagonism This is literary criticism charged with relevance for the age of Occupy Wall Street
