Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today's world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra Six World Faiths W. Owen Cole,1996-01-01 Examines six major world religions Hinduism Judaism Christianity Islam Sikhism and Buddhism Each chapter is written by a member of the faith concerned and the book offers an introduction for all those seeking an understanding of a multi faith society A Comparative Study of Religions Mugambi, J.N.K.,2015-03-16 This book is the result of concerted teamwork among the academia staff of the Department of Religious Studies University of Nairobi between 1986 and 1990 The Project was prompted by the necessity to produce relevant and comprehensive textbooks for the undergraduate degree programme The book has remained in demand confirming the relevance and quality of its content covering the whole range of major religions of the world with extensive geographical and historical scope It includes a specific section on African Religion thus placing the African Religious Heritage within the mainstream of the comparative study of the world s religions Friendship Across Religions Alon Goshen-Gottstein,2018-08-08 Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf A Comparative Study of Religions Y. Masih,2000-01-01 This book has been written by a scholar who has occupied himself with the subject of religion for over fifty years But no finality can be claimed The reason is that religion deals with what is transcendent in the sense that it deals with what man is going to be Advaitism terms this futuristic end as becoming Brahman However Bergson and other evolutionists would say that religion is a collective and cooperative effort of men to become gods This simply means the divinising of man what Aurobindo calls super mind The terms gods and supermind are vague and imprecise They refer to a state beyond human ills beyond human infatuation and beyond the befogging of human intellect One thing is clear that fighting with other human beings in the name of religion is sub human As religious men we are fellow travellers in the direction of the realm of spirit Here the nomenclature of Hindus Muslims Christians etc ceases to be meaningful Hence the religion of man to which we are looking forward is not so much in the past as it is yet to be Of course we have to go very far and we have not made any beginning yet However at present the advaitic principle of differenceless Brahman can serve the purpose of harmonizing all religions Here this principle has been adopted and key concepts of different religions have been shown to mingle into one another A Comparative Study of Religions J.N.K. Mugambi,2010-12-29 This book is the result of concerted teamwork among the academia staff of the Department of Religious Studies University of Nairobi between 1986 and 1990 The Project was prompted by the necessity to produce relevant and comprehensive textbooks for the undergraduate degree programme The book has remained in demand confirming the relevance and quality of its content covering the whole range of major religions of the world with extensive geographical and historical scope It includes a specific section on African Religion thus placing the African Religious Heritage within the mainstream of the comparative study of the world's religions Routledge Library Editions: Education and Religion Various,2021-07-14 The 10 volumes in this set originally published between 1965 and 1994 draw together research by leading academics in the area of religious education and provides a rigorous examination of related key issues The volumes examine the teaching of world faiths in schools religious education in both primary and secondary schools and the teaching of morality This set will be of particular interest to students of Education and Religious Studies World Religions Jeaneane D. Fowler,2000-09-01 An introduction to the world religions of Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism Buddhism and Sikhism Emphasis is placed on the living religion and the whole work is designed as a first level introduction for those who have little or no previous knowledge of these religions One More Voice! Cynthia Keppley Mahmood,2012-08-15 One More Voice adds the scholarly views of Dr Cynthia Keppley Mahmood to the chorus of protest for civil and human rights in South Asia today Looking at the Sikhs of the Punjab the Muslims of Kashmir terrorism in Mumbai and the dangers of research in Bihar Professor Mahmood includes her writings and speeches 2000 2010 in this second XLibris volume A Sea of Orange dealt with 1990 2000 Readers both specialist and general will find these pieces both informative and inspirational as Mahmood turns her attention to activism in South Asia and the potential for change Studying the Sikhs John Stratton Hawley,Gurinder Singh Mann,1993-01-01 This basic guide and resource book targets four fields religious studies history world literature and ethnic or migration studies in which Sikhism is now receiving greater attention The authors explain the problems of studying and interpreting Sikhism and opportunities for integrating Sikh studies into a broader curriculum in each field They also provide a sense of the Sikh community's own approach to education and evaluate materials and approaches at the North American university level Included are a sample syllabus with an explanatory essay a bibliographical guide a glossary and a general bibliography Gurinder Singh Mann's review of his course on Sikhism is an effective mini guide to the field as a whole Studies in Sikhism and Comparative Religion ,1989 The Routledge International Handbook of Religious Education Derek Davis,Elena Mikhailovna Miroshnikova,2013 How and what to teach about religion is controversial in every country The Routledge International Handbook of Religious Education is the first book to comprehensively address the range of ways that major countries around the world teach religion in public and private educational institutions. It discusses how three models in particular seem to dominate the landscape. Countries with strong cultural traditions focused on a majority religion tend to adopt an identification model where instruction is provided only in the tenets of the majority religion, often to the detriment of other religions and their adherents. Countries with traditions that differentiate church and state tend to adopt a separation model, thus either offering instruction in a wide range of religions or in some cases teaching very little about religion, intentionally leaving it to religious institutions and the home setting to provide religious instruction. Still other countries attempt managed pluralism in which neither one nor many but rather a limited handful of major religious traditions are taught. Inevitably, there are countries which do not fit any of these dominant models, and the range of methods touched upon in this book will surprise even the most enlightened reader.

Religious instruction by educational institutions in 53 countries and regions of the world are explored by experts native to each country. These chapters discuss legal parameters in terms of subjective versus objective instruction in religion, constitutional, statutory, social, and political contexts to religious approaches. Distinctions between the kinds of instruction permitted in elementary and secondary schools versus what is allowed in institutions of higher learning. Regional assessments which provide a welcome overview and comparison. This comprehensive and authoritative volume will appeal to educators, scholars, religious leaders, politicians, and others interested in how religion and education interface around the world.

Religion and Globalization Peter Beyer, 1994-03-31 In his exploration of the interaction between religion and worldwide social and cultural change, the author examines the major theories of global change and discusses the ways in which such change impinges on contemporary religious practice, meaning, and influence. Beyer explores some of the key issues in understanding the shape of religion today, including religion as culture and as social system, pure and applied religion, privatized and publicly influential religion, and liberal versus conservative religions. He goes on to apply these issues to five contemporary illustrative cases: the American Christian Right, Liberation Theology movements in Latin America, the Islamic Revolution in Iran, Zionists in Israel, and religion.

The Sikhs Owen Cole, 1998-01-01 This fully revised and up-to-date edition has taken into account the comments of many academics. All major aspects of the religion are covered: its history and development, the Sikh scriptures, worship, ceremonies, and festivals, religious thought, daily life, and ethics.

The Empirical Science of Religious Education Mandy Robbins, Leslie Francis, 2016-01-22 The Empirical Science of Religious Education draws together a collection of innovative articles in the field of religious education which passed the editorial scrutiny of Professor Robert Jackson over the course of his impactful fourteen-year career as editor of the British Journal of Religious Education. These articles have made an enormous contribution to the international literature, establishing of the empirical science of religious education as a research field. The volume draws together, organises, and illustrates the contours of this emerging field and is an essential compendium which covers work in teacher education and teacher experience, student understanding, attitudes, and values, varieties of religious schooling, and worldview and life interpretation.

Organised into ten thematic sections the contributors cover the field comprehensively and bring with them an international and reflexive approach to their research It is an essential resource for those practitioners and researchers who wish to access original and innovative research undertaken by way of ethnographic fieldwork practitioner research life history approaches to research psychological scales and measures and large surveys Particularly interested readers will be studying PGCE and masters level programmes in religious education as well as qualified religious educators undertaking continuing professional development

Handbook of Nordic New Religions, 2015-06-24 When James R Lewis one of the editors of the current collection first moved to Norway in late 2009 he was unprepared to discover that so many researchers in Nordic countries were producing innovative scholarship on new religions and on the new age subculture In fact over the past dozen years or so an increasingly disproportionate percentage of new religions scholars have arisen in Nordic countries and teach at universities in Denmark Finland Norway Sweden and the Baltic countries Nordic New Religions co edited with Inga B Tllefsen surveys this rich field of study in this area of the world focusing on the scholarship being produced by scholars in this region of northern Europe

Major Issues in Islam Harvey J. Sindima, 2017-11-02 This book explores matters that have negatively affected the public image and led to distorted depictions of Islam from the late nineteenth century to the present The areas of uneasiness and debate among Muslims and non Muslims alike include Islamic values and identity in the post caliphate era after colonialism and now under Western hegemony There is anxiety about the place of Shari a in the light of Western law and the state secularism democracy human rights the equality of women and the place of Islamic education in transmitting Islamic values as secular education dominates societies There are apprehensions over the relation between religion and politics as in the rise of Muslim Brotherhoods Wahhabism Islamism al Qaeda and Islamic State In non Muslim countries concerns are about the status of Muslim marriage polygamy divorce and interest in business Every topic is examined through the Noble Qur an and the Hadith classical writings and linguistic analysis
