Hank knew him and swore by him. He also swore at him just as a pal might and since he had a vocabulary of picturesque if utterly meaningless oaths the conversation between the two stalwart and hardy woodsmen was often of a rather lively description. This river of expletives however Hank agreed to dam a little out of respect for his old hunting boss Dr Cathcart whom of course he addressed after the fashion of the country as Doc and also because he understood that young Simpson was already a bit of a parson. He had however one objection to Doc and one only which was that the French Canadian sometimes exhibited what Hank described as the output of a cursed and dismal mind meaning apparently that he sometimes was true to type. Latin type and suffered fits of a kind of silent moroseness when nothing could induce him to utter speech. Doc that is to say was imaginative and melancholy. And as a rule it was too long a spell of civilization that induced the attacks for a few days of the wilderness invariably cured them. This then was the party of four that found themselves in camp the last week in October of that shy moose year way up in the wilderness north of Rat Portage a forsaken and desolate country. There was also Punk an Indian who had accompanied Dr Cathcart and Hank on their hunting trips in previous years and who acted as cook. His duty was merely to stay in camp catch fish and prepare venison steaks and coffee at a few minutes notice. He dressed in the worn out clothes bequeathed to him by former patrons and except for his coarse black hair and dark skin he looked in these city garments no more like a real redskin than a stage Negro looks like a real African. For all that however Punk had in him still the instincts of his dying race his taciturn silence and his endurance survived also his superstition. Part lawman part tracker and part magician the Wardens are monster hunters tasked with protecting the people from the various nightmarish creatures that have invaded the world of men. However despite being descended from a long line of Wardens 16 year old Errol Magnus believes it to be the absolute worst job on the planet. How could a single occupation simultaneously be the most boring abominably stupid and extraordinarily dangerous profession imaginable. But when his older brother Tom the current Warden for their region goes missing Errol has no choice but to enter the Badlands where monsters abide in mind boggling numbers to find him. During his search Errol crosses paths with and finds himself stalked by the legendary Wendigo a monster with preternatural strength and speed as well as enhanced senses of sight smell and hearing and an insatiable hunger for human flesh. Now Errol must do the impossible and not only escape from the monster something no one has ever done before but also avoid the unearthly legacy it leaves on all its victims a terrifying curse known as Wendigo Fever. teen young adult fantasy coming of age horror paranormal supernatural romance legends myths fables monsters wendigo zombie magic mystery roc sorcery revenant manticore Wendigo Warband Guide Chris FitzPatrick, 2010-10-31 Wendigo Moon Priscilla U.
