

THE AMERICAN DREAM ESSAY

Both F. Scott Fitzgerald's novel 'The Great Gatsby' and Sam Mendes's film, 'American Beauty' have shaped my understanding of the American dream. The American dream is defined as the U.S. ideal in which equality of opportunity permits any American to aspire to material success. In both stories, the author refutes the mythology of this notion and posits that it is nothing more than an unobtainable myth through the main protagonist's experiences and through the use of setting. In Fitzgerald's novel, the character Jay Gatsby ostensibly achieves the American Dream, with his 'rags to riches' success story and vast materialistic wealth. Contrary to Gatsby's outward projection of success and fulfilment, his ultimate dream of attaining Daisy remains unattainable, and along with it, the status of the elite upper class. In Sam Mendes's film 'American Beauty' the character of Lester Burnham, like Gatsby, outwardly displays all the signs of materialistic success that indicate that he has achieved the American Dream, but he is caught in the never ending chase for materialism which ultimately leads to unhappiness. Moreover, both composers state that true happiness comes from deep human connections, which challenges the commonly accepted notion of materialistic success bringing happiness.

F. Scott Fitzgerald's novel 'The Great Gatsby' reflects the inequalities of American society in the 1920's and exposes the unobtainability of the American dream in a time of economic prosperity and optimism. Fitzgerald emphasises these economic inequalities through the polar contrast between the wealth in West and East Egg and the poverty in the Valley of Ashes, intending to disprove the misconception that the American dream is accessible to everyone. The industrialisation of the area results in the surrounding landscape being coated in a layer of ash that hyperbolically 'covers everything from cars, to buildings to people'. This burial of the landscape dually symbolises the feelings of desolation, hopelessness and despair in the lower classes, and their entrapment within the valley, which further disproves the illusion of social mobility that is a central tenet of the American dream. The 'Valley of Ashes' is symbolically 'bounded on one side by a small foul river', a river which separates the valley and Manhattan. The river represents the disconnection between the wealthy and the source of their wealth, which allows the valley to be cast aside and forgotten in the minds of the privileged minority. Thus, Fitzgerald has posited the view
