Looking Back James F. Queenan, 2011-08-11 Judge Queenan tells a very human story of his life family and travels withholding no family secrets Included is an account of his diverse and evolving career as a lawyer who handled business transactions drafted estate plans tried cases and at the end found greatest satisfaction in representing corporations reorganizing under chapter 11 He tells of the losing party in one case sending a bomb in the mail to his client We also learn of the disastrous results of a Ponzi scheme that used ruses similar to those of Bernard Madoff Judge Queenans high values and commitment to due process of law are apparent throughout He is still troubled by the prejudicial effect of the press conferences held by the district attorney in the Brinks armed robbery case which came before the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts when he was a young law clerk with the court In giving an account of his years on the bench a time when he was also teaching in law school Judge Queenan makes law and trials understandable to the layman He rejects the notion that bankruptcy is a refuge for the dishonest and lazy and he decries the countrys toxic fascination with debt taking special aim at abusive leveraged buy outs of corporations He recalls memorable witnesses and lawyers tells how he determined who was lying and explains what he did to reduce the length of trials Perhaps most informative of all he describes how a judge makes law rather than just grabbing a rule off the shelf A former campaign worker for Robert Kennedy Judge Queenan shows his passion for politics He gives a critique of the Supreme Courts 2000 decision in Bush v Gore which handed the presidency to George W Bush As one who demonstrated against the war in Iraq before the war began he examines the wars terrible consequences and traces its long political fallout that contributed to the election of Barack Obama for whom the judge delivers a unique panegyric

Post-war British Drama: Looking Back in Gender Michelene Wandor, 2003-12-16 In this extensively revised and updated edition of her classic work Look Back in Gender Michelene Wandor confirms the symbiotic relationship between drama and gender in a provocative look at key representative British plays from the last fifty years Repositioning the text at the heart of theatre studies Wandor surveys plays by Ayckbourn Beckett Churchill Daniels Friel Hare Kane Osborne Pinter Ravenhill Wertenbaker Wesker and others Her nuanced argument central to any analysis of contemporary drama discusses the imperative of gender in the playwright's imagination the function of gender as a major determinant of the text's structural and narrative drives the impact of socialism and feminism on post war British drama and the relevance of feminist dynamics in drama differences in the representation of the family sexuality and the mother before and after 1968 the impact of the slogan that the personal is political on contemporary form and content Building Celebration House Annette Drake, 2017-03-01 Annual Register of World Events, 1800 Extreme Events Malcolm Kemp, 2011-10-04 Taking due account of extreme events when constructing portfolios of assets or liabilities is a key discipline for market professionals Extreme events are a fact of life in how markets operate In Extreme Events Robust Portfolio Construction in the Presence of Fat Tails leading expert Malcolm Kemp shows readers how to analyse market data to uncover fat tailed behaviour how to incorporate expert judgement in the handling of such information and how to refine portfolio construction methodologies to make portfolios less vulnerable to extreme events or to benefit more from them This is the only text that combines a comprehensive treatment of modern risk budgeting and portfolio construction techniques with the specific refinements needed for them to handle extreme events It explains in a logical sequence what constitutes fat tailed behaviour and why it arises how we can analyse such behaviour at aggregate sector or instrument level and how we can then take advantage of this analysis Along the way it provides a rigorous comprehensive and clear development of traditional portfolio construction methodologies applicable if fat tails are absent It then explains how to refine these methodologies to accommodate real world behaviour Throughout the book highlights the importance of expert opinion showing that even the most data centric portfolio construction approaches ultimately depend on practitioner assumptions about how the world might behave The book includes Key concepts and methods involved in analysing extreme events A comprehensive treatment of mean variance investing Bayesian methods market consistent approaches risk budgeting and their application to manager and instrument selection A systematic development of the refinements needed to traditional portfolio construction methodologies to cater for fat tailed behaviour Latest developments in stress testing and back testing methodologies A strong focus on the practical implementation challenges that can arise at each step in the process and on how to overcome these challenges Understanding how to model and analyse the risk of extreme events is a crucial part of the risk management process This book provides a set of techniques that allow practitioners to do this comprehensively Paul Sweeting Professor of Actuarial Science University of Kent How can the likeliness of crises affect the construction of portfolios This question is highly topical in times where we still have to digest the last financial collapse Malcolm Kemp gives the answer His book is highly recommended to experts as well as to students in the financial field Christoph Krischanitz President Actuarial Association of Austria Chairman WG Market Consistency of Groupe Consultatif The Orange County Fair: A History of Celebration Chris Epting, 2015-07-20 The Orange County Fair is one of Southern California's most anticipated summer events. From its first year in 1890 with a few livestock exhibits and horse races, the fair evolved into what is now a month-long extravaganza of rides, games, and entertainment that still celebrates the importance of local agriculture. Millions of visitors have crowded the grounds over the years to enjoy the spectacle of everything from ostrich races and demolition derbies to its unique Centennial Farm and the time honored All Alaskan pig race. Author Chris Epting recounts more than a century of community history and revelry at the OC Fair Routledge Library Editions: Philosophy of Time Various Authors, 2021-03-05 Reissuing five works originally published between 1937 and 1991, this collection contains books addressing the subject of time from a mostly philosophic point of view but also of interest to those in the science and mathematics worlds. These texts are brought back into print in this small set of works addressing how we think about time, the history of the philosophy of time, the measurement of time, theories of relativity, and discussions of the wider thinking about time and space among other aspects. One volume is a thorough bibliography collating references on the subject of time across many disciplines An Address Delivered At the Centennial Celebration in Wilton, N.H., Sept. 25, 1839 Ephraim Peabody, 2025-07-26 Reprint of the original first published in 1839. The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books. We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage.
