Surrealism and Its Others Katharine Conley, Pierre Taminiaux, 2006-01-01 This issue of Yale French Studies on Surrealism and Its Others examines the works and theories of writers artists and thinkers who positioned themselves and their productions in dialogue with Breton's surrealism Although surrealism always sought to distinguish itself from other movements and ideologies its members often celebrated their commonality with many others outside of the official group with whom they shared their passions Marxists visual artists filmmakers psychiatrists and ethnographers Each of the writers artists and thinkers examined here were either temporarily associated with surrealism or were influenced by its collective and open spirit even if in a primarily opposing or questioning role In some cases this outside perspective came from as close as Belgium and other European countries In other cases it came from farther away from North Africa or North America which reveals surrealism's engagement with non European formerly colonized cultures reflects its staunchly anti colonial stance and confirms the movement as something more than an aesthetic phenomenon Along with its aesthetic mission surrealism was also and perhaps more importantly a powerful political and social reality This issue examines works by artists writers and theorists who were all in their own ways located outside of yet close to surrealism and who provide us with a new perspective on this avant garde and modernist movement Martine Antle Surrealism and the Orient Adam Jolles The Tactile Turn Envisioning a Post Colonial Aesthetic in France Jonathan P Eburne Automatism and Terror Surrealism Theory and the Postwar Left Pierre Taminiaux Breton and Trotsky The Revolutionary Memory of Surrealism Richard Stamelman Photography The Marvelous Precipitate of Desire Robert Harvey Where's Duchamp Out Queering the Field Raphaelle Moine From Surrealist Cinema to Surrealism in the Cinema Does a Surrealist Genre Exist in Film Georgiana M M Colville Between Surrealism and Magic Realism The Early Feature Films of Andr Delvaux 1926 2002 the Other Delvaux Katharine Conley Surrealism and Outsider Art From the Automatic Message to Andr Breton's Collection     Lexis and Creativity in

Translation Dorothy Kenny, 2014-04-08 Computers offer new perspectives in the study of language allowing us to see phenomena that previously remained obscure because of the limitations of our vantage points It is not uncommon for computers to be likened to the telescope or microscope in this respect In this pioneering computer assisted study of translation Dorothy Kenny suggests another image that of the kaleidoscope playful changes of perspective using corpus processing software allow textual patterns to come into focus and then recede again as others take their place And against the background of repeated patterns in a corpus creative uses of language gain a particular prominence In Lexis and Creativity in Translation Kenny monitors the translation of creative source text word forms and collocations uncovered in a specially constructed German English parallel corpus of literary texts Using an abundance of examples she reveals evidence of both normalization and ingenious creativity in translation Her discussion of lexical creativity draws on insights from traditional morphology structural semantics and most notably neo Firthian corpus linguistics suggesting that rumours of the demise of linguistics in translation studies are greatly exaggerated Lexis and Creativity in Translation is essential reading for anyone interested in corpus linguistics and its impact so far on translation studies The book also offers theoretical and practical guidance for researchers who wish to conduct their own corpus based investigations of translation No previous knowledge of German corpus linguistics or computing is assumed

Unica Zürn Esra Plumer, 2016-02-26 Diagnosed with schizophrenia in the 1950s German writer and artist Unica Zürn produced a wealth of remarkable textual and visual material within psychiatric institutions across Germany and France While Zürn is often discussed in relation to her partner the controversial artist Hans Bellmer this innovative book moves beyond the familiar model of the overlooked significant other and re-introduces her as a member of the French Surrealist group This is the first monograph on the life and work of the Unica Zürn in English Esra Plumer presents Zürn's life and work in light of the artist's individual experiences with WWII Post war Surrealism and mental illness at the same time revealing wider aspects of her artistic practice in relation to her contemporaries She also reveals how the techniques of anagrams and automatism writing and drawing methods designed to unlock the subconscious mind form the pillars of Zürn's artistic creative output which carry her work into the wider theoretical circles of psychoanalytic theory and post-structuralist thought

Surrealist women's writing Anna Watz, 2021-01-12 Surrealist women's writing A critical exploration is the first sustained critical inquiry into the writing of women associated with surrealism Featuring original essays by leading scholars of surrealism the volume demonstrates the extent and the historical linguistic and culturally contextual breadth of this writing It also highlights how the specifically surrealist poetics and politics of these writers work intersect with and contribute to contemporary debates on for example gender sexuality subjectivity otherness anthropocentrism and the environment Drawing on a variety of innovative theoretical approaches the essays in the volume focus on the writing of numerous women surrealists many of whom have hitherto mainly been known for their visual rather than their literary production These include Claude Cahun Leonora Carrington Kay Sage Colette Peignot Suzanne Césaire Unica Zürn Ithell Colquhoun Leonor Fini Dorothea Tanning and Rikki Ducornet

The Man of Jasmine Unica Zürn, 1994 Zürn's mental collapse was initiated when she encountered in the real world her childhood fantasy figure the man of jasmine he was the writer Henri Michaux and her meeting him plunged her into a world of hallucination in which visions of her desires anxieties and events from her unresolved past overwhelmed her present life Her return to reality was constantly interrupted by alternate visionary and depressive periods origins of his disturbing art     Yale French Studies ,1948     Automatic Woman Katharine Conley,1996-01-01

Contemporary feminist critics have often described Surrealism as a misogynist movement In Automatic Woman Katharine Conley addresses this issue confirming some feminist allegations while qualifying and overturning others Through insightful analyses of works by a range of writers and artists Conley develops a complex view of Surrealist portrayals of Woman Conley begins with a discussion of the composite image of Woman developed by such early male Surrealists as Andr Breton Francis Picabia and Paul Eluard She labels that image Automatic Woman a term that comprises views of Woman as provocative and revolutionary but also as a depersonalized object largely devoid of individuality and volition This analysis largely confirms feminist critiques of Surrealism The heart of the book however examines the writings of Leonora Carrington and Unica Zürn two women in the Surrealist movement whose works Conley argues anticipate much contemporary feminist art and theory In concluding Conley shows how Breton s own views on women evolved in the course of his long career arriving at last at a position far more congenial to contemporary feminists Automatic Woman is distinguished by Katharine Conley s judicious understanding of how women and the image of Woman figured in Surrealism The book is an important contemporary account of a cultural movement that continues to fascinate influence and provoke us     Books in Print ,1991     Subject to Delusions Caroline Rupprecht,2006 Psychoanalysis en narcissism in American and English literature by Djuna Barnes Unica Zürn     Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004     Auto/biography Studies ,1991     N. Paradoxa ,1998 International feminist art journal     Sulfur ,1991     Boston Journal of Chemistry and Popular Science Review ,1876     The Popular Science News and Boston Journal of Chemistry ,1876     Boston Journal of Chemistry ,1878
