

A landscape photograph showing a sunset or sunrise. The sun is a bright, semi-circular disk on the horizon, casting a long, horizontal glow of yellow and orange light across the sky. The sky transitions from a pale blue at the top to a deep purple and blue near the horizon. Below the horizon, there are dark, silhouetted mountain ranges. The overall mood is serene and peaceful.

B. Phillips, 2012-06-13 J B Phillips best known hitherto for his widely acclaimed translation of the New Testament has in this series of short plays about the life of Christ preserved the same direct speech and simple dignified language that so distinguish his translation The series starts with the first public appearance of the boy Jesus when he talks to the elders in the temple and ends with a moving reconstruction of the crucifixion as witnessed by the soldiers by Nicodemus and bystanders Written at the invitation of the BBC in England for their Schools Programme these plays will be welcomed in book form by parents and children as well as teachers Schools churches clubs and other groups will find them admirably suited to simple dramatization of some of the events in the life of the Man called Jesus They will be especially satisfying to the individual reader who will find that this imaginative approach sheds new light upon familiar stories Turn to Canon Phillips helpful introduction for his interesting comments on the writing of the plays Show Me This Man Called Jesus Jean Preston, 2017-02-22 This book will kick up a lot of religious dust in all of us It s what we do when the dust settles and our eyes are opened that will determine where we go from here It is only when we see Him that we see our destiny We must not get offended with the truth The truth is the only thing that will set us free The enemy is behind offenses as he does not want us to reach our destiny Each one of us has a marvelous unique destiny marked out by the price Christ paid for it Hebrews 12 1b puts it simply Let us lay aside every weight and sin which does so easily beset us and let us run with patience the race that is set before us We would all agree that the church has a message for the world but would we all agree that the world has a message for the church They most assuredly do Their cries identify the reason Christ came to earth as a man and became the sacrifice for those cries For every cry there is a provision in His sacrifice Has the church in general disclosed the real Christ and His sacrifice that brings wholeness and purpose for all people regardless of denomination race and background The

Moloney, SDB, 2023-06-13 No other book of the New Testament has attracted as much attention from commentators as the Fourth Gospel It has stirred minds hearts and imaginations from Christianity's earliest days In The Gospel of John Francis Moloney unfolds the identifiable point of view of this unique Gospel narrative and offers readers heirs to its rich and widely varied interpretative traditions relevance for their lives today The Gospel of John's significance for Christianity has been obvious from the time of Irenaeus It was also fundamental in the emergence of Christian theology especially in the trinitarian and christological debates that produced the great ecumenical Councils from Nicaea to Chalcedon What sets this commentary on the Fourth Gospel apart from others is Moloney's particular attention to the narrative design of the Gospel story He traces the impact the Johannine form of the Jesus story has made on readers and explicates the way in which the author has told the story of Jesus Through this he demonstrates how the Gospel story articulates a coherent theology christology and ecclesiology      Life-study of Revelation Witness Lee, 2023-09-27 The book of Revelation firstly reveals Christ 1:1 and secondly the testimony of Jesus 1:2 In other words this book is concerned with Christ and the church In Revelation Christ and the church are revealed in a unique and particular way Several aspects of Christ such as the vision of Him as the High Priest in the midst of the churches caring for them in love yet with a judging attitude 1:13-16 the vision of Him as the Lion Lamb in the midst of God's throne and of the four living creatures and in the midst of the 24 elders of the universe opening the seven seals of God's universal administration 5:1-6:1 and the vision of Him as Another

John the Theologian and his Paschal Gospel John Behr, 2019-03-20 This study brings three different kinds of readers of the Gospel of John together with the theological goal of understanding what is meant by Incarnation and how it relates to Pascha the Passion of Christ how this is conceived of as revelation and how we speak of it The first group of readers are the Christian writers from the early centuries some of whom such as Irenaeus of Lyons stood in direct continuity through Polycarp of Smyrna with John himself In exploring these writers John Behr offers a glimpse of the figure of John and the celebration of Pascha which held to have started with him The second group of readers are modern scriptural scholars from whom we learn of the apocalyptic dimensions of John's Gospel and the way in which it presents the life of Christ in terms of the Temple and its feasts With Christ's own body finally erected on the Cross being the true Temple in an offering of love rather than a sacrifice for sin An offering in which Jesus becomes the flesh he offers for consumption the bread which descends from heaven so that incarnation is not an event now in the past but the embodiment of God in those who follow Christ in the present The third reader is Michel Henry a French Phenomenologist whose reading of John opens up further surprising dimensions of this Gospel which yet align with those uncovered in the first parts of this work This thought provoking work brings these threads together to reflect on the nature and task of Christian theology
