Man Who Walked Between The Towers:

The Man Who Walked Between the Towers Mordicai Gerstein, 2003-09-05 A lyrical evocation of Philippe Petit's 1974 tightrope walk between the World Trade Center towers a quarter of a mile in the sky The Man who Walked Between the Towers Mordicai Gerstein, 2004 A lyrical evocation of Philippe Petit's 1974 tightrope walk between the World Trade Center towers The Man Who Walked Between the Towers Mordicai Gerstein, 2007-04-17 A lyrical evocation of Philippe Petit's 1974 tightrope walk between the World Trade Center towers Man Who Walked Between the Towers Mordicai Gerstein, 2007 A lyrical evocation of Philippe Petit's 1974 tightrope walk between the World Trade Center towers To Reach the Clouds Philippe Petit, 2002-09-04 An artist of the air re-creates his six year plot to pull off an act of incomparable beauty and imagination One late summer day a feat of unimaginable audacity was perpetrated on the twin towers of the World Trade Center The year was 1974 A hundred thousand people gathered on the ground to watch in awe as twenty four year old high wire artist Philippe Petit made eight crossings between the all but completed towers a quarter mile above the earth over the course of nearly an hour Petit's achievement made headlines around the world Yet few who saw or heard about it realized that it was the fulfillment of a dream he had nurtured for six years rekindling it each time it was in danger of expiring His accomplices were a motley crew of foreigners and Americans who under Petit's direction had conspired connived labored argued rehearsed and improvised to make possible an act of unsurpassed aerial artistry In this visually and verbally stunning book Petit tells for the first time the dramatic story of this history making walk from conception and clandestine planning to the performance and its aftermath The account draws on Petit's journals which capture everything from his budgets to his strategies for rigging a high wire in the dead of night between two of the most secure towers in the world It is animated by photographs taken by two of Petit's collaborators and by his own wonderfully evocative sketches and unquenchable humor

Second-Generation Memory and Contemporary Children's Literature Anastasia Ulanowicz, 2013-09-02 Winner of the Children's Literature Association Book Award This book visits a range of textual forms including diary novel and picturebook to explore the relationship between second generation memory and contemporary children's literature Ulanowicz argues that second generation memory informed by intimate family relationships textual mediation and technology is characterized by vicarious rather than direct experience of the past As such children's literature is particularly well suited to the representation of second generation memory insofar as children's fiction is particularly invested in the transmission and reproduction of cultural memory and its form promotes the formation of various complex intergenerational relationships Further children's books that depict second generation memory have the potential to challenge conventional Western notions of selfhood and ethics This study shows how novels such as Lois Lowry's The Giver 1993 and Judy Blume's Starring Sally J. Freedman as Herself 1977 both of which feature protagonists who adapt their elders' memories into their own mnemonic repertoires implicitly reject Cartesian notions of the unified subject in favor of a view of identity as always already social relational and dynamic in character This book not only questions how and why second generation memory is represented in books for young people but whether such representations of memory might be considered radical or conservative Together these analyses address a topic that has not been explored fully within the fields of children s literature trauma and memory studies and Holocaust studies

Children's Fiction about 9/11 Jo Lampert,2009-09-10 In this pioneering and timely book Lampert examines the ways in which cultural identities are constructed within young adult and children s literature about the attacks of September 11 2001 Looking at examples including picture books young adult novels and a selection of DC Comics Lampert finds the co mingling of xenophobia and tolerance the binaried competition between good and evil and global harmony and national insularity and the glorification of both the commonplace hero and the super human Specifically Lampert identifies three significant identity categories encoded in 9 11 books for children ethnic identities national identities and heroic identities arguing that their formation is contingent upon post 9 11 politics These shifting identities offer implicit and explicit accounts of what constitute good citizenship loyalty to nation and community and desirable attributes in a Western post 9 11 context Lampert makes an original contribution to the field of children s literature by providing a focused and sustained analysis of how texts for children about 9 11 contribute to formations of identity in these complex times of cultural unease and global unrest
