Frazer,2016-02-19 Sir James George Frazer originally set out to discover the origins of one ancient custom in Classical Rome the plucking of the Golden Bough from a tree in the sacred grove of Diana and the murderous succession of the priesthood there and was led by his investigations into a twenty five year study of primitive customs superstitions magic and myth throughout the world The monumental thirteen volume work which resulted has been a rich source of anthropological material and a literary masterpiece for more than half a century Both the wealth of his illustrative material and the broad sweep of his argument can be appreciated in this very readable single volume The Golden Bough James George Frazer,2005-12-01 The notion of a man god or of a human being endowed with divine or supernatural powers belongs essentially to that earlier period of religious history in which gods and men are still viewed as beings of much the same order and before they are divided by the impassable gulf which to later thought opens out between them Strange therefore as may seem to us the idea of a god incarnate in human form it has nothing very startling for early man who sees in a man god or a god man only a higher degree of the same supernatural powers which he arrogates in perfect good faith to himself from Chapter VII Incarnate Human Gods In 1890 James George Frazer began publishing The Golden Bough his monumental study of myth ritual and religion which would by 1936 run to 13 volumes and establish him as a pioneer in the study of religion as an aspect of culture This abridged edition assembled in 1922 condenses this fundamental work to one readable volume that is still a source for modern anthropology thanks to its expansive discussions ancient cultish practices and their connections to the rites of modern Christianity In eloquent prose Frazer discusses legends of the woods sympathetic magic magicians as kings the worship of trees the concept of the sacred marriage the links between priestly and royal power ritual royal sacrifices the concept of eating the god the myths of Osiris Adonis Isis and other ancient deities and much more Lovers of mythology will be enraptured by this book which draws all of human belief under one unifying umbrella celebrating myth and ritual as part of the basis of all human culture Scottish anthropologist SIR JAMES GEORGE FRAZER 1854 1941 also wrote Man God and Immortality 1927 and Creation and Evolution in Primitive Cosmogonies 1935 The Origin of Civilisation and the Primitive Condition of Man Sir John Lubbock, 1882 The Book of Orm Robert Williams Buchanan, 1882 The Greater Light ,1906 The Religious System of China Jan Jakob Maria de Groot, 1982 The Religious system of China J.
