Man Who Sold A Ghost:

The Man Who Sold a Ghost, 2007 This collection contains some of the best Chinese tales from the third to the sixth century They fall into two main categories stories of the supernatural and anecdotes about historical figures The former which clearly predominate evolved from earlier myths and legends Asian Horror Encyclopedia Laurence C. Bush, 2001-10-05 The Asian Horror Encyclopedia is the first reference work of its kind in English It covers Asian horror culture in literature art film and comics From its roots in ancient Chinese folklore to the best selling Japanese horror novelists of today this book is a handy alphabetic reference collecting scarce information from obscure sources Folktales from China Vidya Devi, The Story of Stone Jing Wang, 1992 In this pathbreaking study of three of the most familiar texts in the Chinese tradition all concerning stones endowed with magical properties Jing Wang develops a monumental reconstruction of ancient Chinese stone lore Wang's thorough and systematic comparison of these classic works illuminates the various tellings of the stone story and provides new insight into major topics in traditional Chinese literature Bringing together Chinese myth religion folklore art and literature this book is the first in any language to amass the sources of stone myth and stone lore in Chinese culture Uniting classical Chinese studies with contemporary Western theoretical concerns Wang examines these stone narratives by analyzing intertextuality within Chinese traditions She offers revelatory interpretations to long standing critical issues such as the paradoxical character of the monkey in The Journey to the West the circularity of narrative logic in The Dream of the Red Chamber and the structural necessity of the stone tablet in Water Margin By both challenging and incorporating traditional sinological scholarship Wang's The Story of Stone reveals the ideological ramifications of these three literary works on Chinese cultural history and makes the past relevant to contemporary intellectual discourse Specialists in Chinese literature and culture comparative literature literary theory and religious studies will find much of interest in this outstanding work which is sure to become a standard reference on the subject Asian-Pacific Folktales and Legends Jeannette Faurot, 2010-06-15 These stories offer us an introduction to the complex oral traditions of the varied civilizations of one of the world's most fascinating regions Exotic clever and poignant Asian Pacific Folktales and Legends invites you into a magically distinctive world Originating from the far corners of the globe China Korea Japan Thailand the Philippines Vietnam Indonesia and Malaysia these tales teach us about morality and mysticism in enchanting ways Organized by universal folkloric themes Asian Pacific Folktales and Legends features animal stories tales of magical skill explanations of how things came to be the way they are delightful depictions of the clever and the foolish ghosts and supernatural beings and legends about heroes and gods From The Supernatural Crossbow a Vietnamese tale to the Malaysian story of The Man in the Moon each piece in this collection explores a self contained dreamlike universe that both delights and transports the reader Shaped by the geographical and cultural influences of a people these stories offer us an introduction to the complex oral traditions of the varied civilizations of one of the world's most fascinating regions The Girl with Ghost Eyes M. H. Boroson, 2015-11-03 The Girl with Ghost Eyes is a fun fun read Martial arts and Asian magic set in Old San Francisco make for a fresh take on urban fantasy a wonderful story that kept me up late to finish 1 New York Times bestselling author Patricia Briggs It s the end of the nineteenth century in San Francisco s Chinatown and ghost hunters from the Maoshan traditions of Daoism keep malevolent spiritual forces at bay Li lin the daughter of a renowned Daoshi exorcist is a young widow burdened with yin eyes the unique ability to see the spirit world Her spiritual visions and the death of her husband bring shame to Li lin and her father and shame is not something this immigrant family can afford When a sorcerer cripples her father terrible plans are set in motion and only Li lin can stop them To aid her are her martial arts and a peachwood sword her burning paper talismans and a wisecracking spirit in the form of a human eyeball tucked away in her pocket Navigating the dangerous alleys and backrooms of a male dominated Chinatown Li lin must confront evil spirits gangsters and soulstealers before the sorcerer s ritual summons an ancient evil that could burn Chinatown to the ground With a rich and inventive historical setting nonstop martial arts action authentic Chinese magic and bizarre monsters from Asian folklore The Girl with Ghost Eyes is also the poignant story of a young immigrant searching to find her place beside the long shadow of a demanding father and the stigma of widowhood In a Chinatown caught between tradition and modernity one woman may be the key to holding everything together Skyhorse Publishing under our Night Shade and Talos imprints is proud to publish a broad range of titles for readers interested in science fiction space opera time travel hard SF alien invasion near future dystopia fantasy grimdark sword and sorcery contemporary urban fantasy steampunk alternative history and horror zombies vampires and the occult and supernatural and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller a national bestseller or a Hugo or Nebula award winner we are committed to publishing quality books from a diverse group of authors Unnatural Narrative across Borders Biwu Shang, 2018-12-07 This book actively engages with current discussion of narratology and unnatural narrative theory in particular Unsatisfied with the hegemony of European and Anglo American narrative theory it calls for a transnational and comparative turn in unnatural narrative theory the purpose of which is to draw readers attention to those periphery and marginalized narratives produced in places other than England and America It places equal weight on theoretical exploration and critical practice The book in addition to offering a detailed account of current scholarship of unnatural narratology examines its core issues and critical debates as well as outlining a set of directions for its future development To present a counterpart of Western unnatural narrative studies this book specifically takes a close look at the experimental narratives in China and Iraq either synchronically or diachronically In doing so it aims on the one hand to show how the unnatural narratives are written and to be explained differently from those Western unnatural narrative works and on the other hand to use the particular cases to challenge the existing narratological framework so as to further enrich and supplement it The book will be useful and inspiring to those scholars working in such broad fields as narrative theory literary criticism cultural

In Search of the Supernatural Bao Gan, Kenneth J. DeWoskin, James Irving Crump, 1996-04 This is the first complete translation into a Western language of Sou shen Chi a fourth century Chinese collection of 464 extraordinary fantastic or bizarre items The subjects of these brief anecdotes and narratives include natural curiosities gods religious figures omens dreams divinations miracles monsters strange animals demons ghosts and exorcists The stories range from sober reports of drought and misfortune to accounts of a fox transformed into a turtle persons whose heads could take independent flight at night a tryst in a tomb and the marriages of humans with spirits Sou shen Chi is the oldest richest and most consulted example of the chi kuai genre an important division of classical Chinese literature demonstrating features of narrative technique and ethereal sensibility that point to chi kuai as the earliest examples of Chinese fiction Of the three surviving versions of Sou shen Chi the 20 chapter edition translated here is widely accepted as the best representation of the work of its compiler Kan Pao the official court historian for Emperor Yuan of the Chin dynasty The style of the writing is terse almost austere and it has qualities of documentary prose a reflection of its common ancestry with historical writing An introduction deals with the text and its background authorship contents versions and transmission Sou shen Chi served as a model for subsequent collections and provided many basic plots characters and situations for plays novels and even poetry The stories were widely known and became part of the body of allusions that literate Chinese knew and used in their own writings For example in the twentieth century Lu Xun retold in extended fashion a tale of magic swords that comes from Sou shen Chi BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Man Who Sold the Moon and Orphans of the Sky Robert A. Heinlein, 2013-09-03 Two classic Robert A Heinlein novels in one volume with an all new Afterword by Mark L Van Name author of the Jon and Lobo military SF series The Man Who Sold the Moon D D Harriman is a billionaire with a dream the dream of space for all mankind The method Anything that works Maybe in fact Harriman goes too far But he will give us the stars Orphans of the Sky Hugh had been taught that according to the ancient sacred writings the Ship was on a voyage to faraway Centaurus But he also understood that this must be allegory for a voyage to spiritual perfection After all the real world was only metal corridors and nothing else right And then Hugh begins to suspect the truth Two all time classics from seven time Hugo winner and Dean of Science Fiction Robert A Heinlein At the publisher s request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management The Wildest Game Daniel P. Mannix, Peter Ryhiner, 2015-02-24 Peter Ryhiner hero adventurer and romantic was one of the world s most active wild animal collectors Born in Basel Switzerland on January 1 1920 Peter knew by the time he was eight years old that he wanted to be a naturalist and explorer and thought about nothing else His parents listened to him with good natured amusement but were not so amused when his interests caused him to flunk out of two schools and precipitated his expulsion from a third for truancy Eventually throwing up their hands in frustration his family cut off his funds and Peter had to use all his ingenuity to figure out how to continue collecting and studying animals including breeding and developing unusual strains of mice taming adders and holding tortoise races By the age of twenty after a brief stint in the calvary during WW II and some time spent working for Geigy a Swiss chemical company he and an associate from Geigy s began importing animals as a side venture and Peter was soon launched in the animal business His journeys led him around the globe straight through Europe South America Africa and Asia where he captured and sold thousands of animals to zoos and wildlife parks His adventures were astonishing trampled crushed chased bitten and almost drowned the animals he sought not only provided Peter with a lucrative though unpredictable career but repeatedly inspired a greater and greater curiosity and love for the wild animals of the world Peter Ryhiner rarely carried a gun his intention was not to harm but to study and learn and to educate others and in fact he was a man with a vision well ahead of his time As his success grew he was sought as a lecturer and made many television appearances Soon however currency restrictions conservation laws regulations against importing or exporting many species and transportation costs took their toll Although increased awareness and protection of wild animals was desperately needed new laws and higher costs meant that Peter Ryhiner and other wild animal collectors of the time gradually faded into oblivion
