Flag Day; Its History Robert Haven Schauffler, 1912 We Never Retreat Edward A. Bradley, 2015-03-15 The term filibuster often brings to mind a senator giving a long winded speech in opposition to a bill but the term had a different connotation in the nineteenth century invasion of foreign lands by private military forces Spanish Texas was a target of such invasions Generally given short shrift in the studies of American based filibustering these expeditions were led by colorful men such as Augustus William Magee Bernardo Gutierrez de Lara John Robinson and James Long Previous accounts of their activities are brief lack the appropriate context to fully understand filibustering and leave gaps in the historiography Ed Bradley now offers a thorough recounting of filibustering into Spanish Texas framed through the lens of personal and political motives why American men participated in them and to what extent the US government was either involved in or tolerated them We Never Retreat makes a major contribution by placing these expeditions within the contexts of the Mexican War of Independence and international relations between the United States and Spain American Places William E.
