Management and Change in Africa Terence Jackson,2004-07-31 Offering a re conceptualization of our understanding of management in Africa this work includes results of organizational surveys taken across a range of sectors in South Africa Kenya and Nigeria and Cameroon

Sustainable Management Development in Africa Hamid Kazeroony,2016-04-14 Sustainable Management Development in Africa examines how African management and business scholarship can serve African and multinational management and organizations operating in Africa In a broader sense this book within an African context explores how human capital and intellectual capabilities can be organized at the higher education level describes the cultural social and political influencers impacting management and organization helps conceptualize African management theories to address organizational effectiveness addresses the current management and organizational practices in Africa in identifying challenges and provides guidance for more effective management and organizational operation Aimed at researchers academics and advanced students alike this book lays the groundwork for the application of uniquely African theoretical and practical perspectives for sustainable management and organizational operation as explained from a contemporary African point of view In addition and most important this book contains a uniquely African content that allows for developing new theories and examining new ways of doing business thus reaffirming the rise of African scholarship in the fields of management organization and business

Toward Gender-responsive and Technology-oriented Disaster Management in Eastern Africa Kerubo Nyasimi, Mary,Omoyo Nyandiko, Nicodemus,Partey, Samuel,Ramasamy, Jayakumar,UNESCO Office Nairobi and Regional Bureau for Science in Africa,Yasukawa, Soichiro,2022-03-19 Indigenous Management Practices in Africa Uchenna Uzo,Abel Kinoti Meru,2018-08-10 Africa is fast becoming an investment destination for firms operating outside the continent and effective management is central to the realization of organizational goals This volume evaluates the need for management philosophies and theories that reflect the peculiarities of the African continent

Routledge Handbook of Organizational Change in Africa Franca Ovadje,Samuel Aryee,2018-08-06 Although change management and therefore effective adaptation to environmental complexity is considered a uniquely human cultural activity the extensive change management literature is largely based on the experiences of organizations in the advanced economies of the West As the economies of African countries become increasingly open African organizations will need to be agile in order to adapt and grow in a dynamic global environment Currently there is a dearth of contextualized knowledge on change management within Africa but this handbook aims to address this by bringing together a wide range of experts to explore organizational change and change management from an African context The handbook adopts a multidisciplinary historical philosophical processual and strategic perspective as well as empirical accounts of change management It addresses such issues as What are the external and internal pressures for change What is the content and process of change management What are the essentials of effective change management How can change management be theorized from an African perspective What sort of leadership can best align with change management demands in an African context How do organizations build internal change management capability It is hoped that answers to these questions contained in the handbook will provide a contextualized understanding of change management which African organizations and scholars can leverage to respond to the threats and opportunities inherent in their increasingly dynamic environment The handbook should constitute an essential reference for academics researchers and advanced students of change management development studies and African studies as well as practitioners

Management in Africa Terri R. Lituchy, Betty Jane Punnett, Bill Buenaar Pupilampu, 2013 This book offers a comprehensive look at the current literatures and research based on empirical data from across different countries in Africa It focuses on the work of leading scholars of management in and around Africa and the African Context exploring whether we can at this point refer to African Management as an emerging and distinct stream in the scholarly discourse in management The main themes are macro and micro issues of Management in Africa each chapter illustrating the historical or traditional view of Management in Africa versus the newer western business management perspective This book presents current in depth rigorous research and identifies future research and propositions enabling scholars and students to gain an in depth understanding of management as it is evolving and practiced in Africa

Disaster Management in Sub-Saharan Africa Roland Azibo Balgah, Jude Ndzifon Kimengsi, 2022-04-21 A combined analysis of all the chapters provides an interesting summary and information for creating disaster management policies for improved results in SSA With an extensive glossary of terms and index the book lends itself to specialized academics and students but also to disaster management policy makers and practitioners

Management and Leadership for a Sustainable Africa, Volume 3 Kemi Ogunyemi,Oreva

Atanya, Vanessa Bursal, 2022-11-16 To effectively deliver sustainable management in practice for Africa we need responsible leadership We need to deepen our understanding of sustainability in the unique socio political and economic context of the continent The roles of various actors across public private and non profit sectors as enablers of sustainable development need to be explored to understand the social economic and environmental SEE trends in Africa and its emerging and developing economies as well as to chart the way forward for the continent This third volume focuses on education as a tool to build a sustainable Africa It explores the use of pedagogical approaches learning resources and policy implementation to develop African leaders and managers with a sustainability mindset that feeds into leadership decision making systemic change management and efficient and sustainable transfers of knowledge and practice The case stories from various academic institutions present practicable and innovative ideas for educating those who will lead sustainable development for Africa s future The African scope of the book is hinged on collaboration from authors across Africa and the inclusion of case stories from emerging economies in the five African subregions East West North Central and Southern Africa within the chapters The core message is that to achieve effective and sustainable management and development for Africa the practice of responsible leadership is critical

Leadership and Management: Case Studies in Training in Higher Education in Africa Mouton, Johann, Wildschut, Lauren, 2015-08-06 There has been a resurgence of interest in training programmes for higher education leaders and management HELM at African universities in recent times Although there have been a few cases of evaluation studies of such programmes in Africa a more systematic review of the lessons learnt through these programmes has not been done This book aims to document and reflect on the learnings from intervention programmes at three African higher education councils It is clear that university leaders face many leadership and management challenges This is the starting point of the book

Wetland Management and Sustainable Livelihoods in Africa Adrian Wood, Alan Dixon, Matthew McCartney, 2013-06-19 In this book the authors argue for a paradigm shift in the way African wetlands are considered Current policies and wetland management are too frequently underpinned by a perspective that views agriculture simply as a threat and disregards its important contribution to livelihoods In rural areas where people are entrenched in poverty wetlands in particular wetland agriculture have a critical role to play in supporting and developing peoples livelihoods Furthermore as populations rise and climate change takes grip they will be increasingly important The authors argue that an approach to wetland management that is much more people focused is required That is an approach that instead of being concerned primarily with environmental outcomes is centred on livelihood outcomes supported by the sustainable use of natural wetland resources The authors stress the need for Integrated Water Resource Management and landscape approaches to ensure sustainable use of wetlands throughout a river catchment and the need for wetland management interventions to engage with a wide range of stakeholders They also assess the feasibility of creating incentives and value in wetlands to support sustainable use Drawing on nine empirical case studies this book highlights the different ways in which sustainable use of wetlands has been sought each case focusing on specific issues about wetlands agriculture and livelihoods
