the Bottom Line Larry Cuban,2007-09-15 Ford Motor Company would not have survived the competition had it not been for an emphasis on results We must view education the same way the U S Secretary of Education declared in 2003 But is he right In this provocative new book Larry Cuban takes aim at the alluring cliché that schools should be more businesslike and shows that in its long history in business minded America no one has shown that a business model can be successfully applied to education In this straight talking book one of the most distinguished scholars in education charts the Gilded Age beginnings of the influential view that American schools should be organized to meet the needs of American businesses and run according to principles of cost efficiency bottom line thinking and customer satisfaction Not only are schools by their nature not businesslike Cuban argues but the attempt to run them along business lines leads to dangerous over standardization of tests and of goals for our children Why should we think that there is such a thing as one best school Is college for all achievable or even desirable Even if it were possible do we really want schools to operate as bootcamps for a workforce Cuban suggests that the best business inspired improvement for American education would be more consistent and sustained on the job worker training tailored for the job to be done and business leaders encouragement and adoption of an ethic of civic engagement and public service

Retro Ball Parks Daniel Rosensweig,2023-09-08 Oriole Park at Camden Yards in Baltimore opened in 1992 as an intentional antidote to the modern multiuse athletic stadium Home to only one sport and featuring accents of classic parks of previous generations Oriole Park attempted to reconstitute Baltimore s past while serving as a cornerstone of downtown redevelopment Since the gates opened at Camden yards more than a dozen other American cities have constructed new old major league parks Cleveland Detroit Seattle Pittsburgh Milwaukee Atlanta Denver Phoenix San Francisco Cincinnati Houston Arlington Texas and San Diego In Retro Ball Parks Daniel Rosenweig explores the cultural and economic role of retro baseball parks and traces the cultural implications of re creating the old in new urban spaces According to Rosenweig the new urban landscape around these retro stadiums often presents a more homogenous culture than the one the new park replaced Indeed whole sections of cities have razed in order to build stadiums that cater to clientele eager to enjoy a nostalgic urban experience This mandate to draw suburban residents and tourists to the heart of downtown combined with the accompanying gentrification of these newly redeveloped areas has fundamentally altered historic urban centers Focusing on Cleveland s Jacobs Field as a case study Rosenweig explores the political economy surrounding the construction of downtown ball parks which have emerged as key components of urban entertainment based development Blending economic and cultural analysis he considers the intersection of race and class in these new venues For example he shows that African American consumers in the commercial district around Jacobs Field have largely been replaced by symbolic representations of African American culture such as piped in rap music and Jackie Robinson replica jerseys He concludes that the question of authenticity the question of what it means to simultaneously commemorate and commodify the past in retro ball parks mirrors larger cultural issues regarding the nature and implications of urban redevelopment and gentrification Daniel Rosensweig is a professor in the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies Program at the University of Virginia Journal of Small Business and Entrepreneurship ,1986

Money Talks, Bullsh*t Walks Ben E. Johnson,2009-12-31 The challenge is how do we get somebody 126 years old to get it up This was Sam Zell s unique way of saying hello to a large gathering at the Los Angeles Times shortly after taking charge of Tribune Company I m your Viagra OK Even for Sam Zell one of the greatest contrarian investors buying Tribune Company was a risky and controversial move Many saw the purchase of the Chicago Tribune and Los Angeles Times by a man who had made his fortune in cargo containers real estate fertilizer and plumbing to be a sign of the coming media apocalypse Maybe they were frightened by Zell s nickname the Grave Dancer The move didn t seem to make sense for Zell either Why would an epithet slinging motorcycle riding scrapper who had started with nothing and worked his way up to a 5 billion real estate fortune be interested in a declining media company it would have been another story if Zell had taken over Playboy issues of which Zell had bought and resold for profit to friends around town when he was a teenager Ben Johnson has the answers in this fascinating biography of a uniquely colorful mogul who is fond of blunt declarations and bold business moves Johnson also tells the real story of Zell s adventure at the Tribune that feverish year between his purchase of the ailing company and its declaration of bankruptcy Between the story of Zell s rise to astounding riches and previously untold details of his conflicts with his employees and investors Money Talks Bullsh*t Walks will keep readers alternately laughing and on the edge of their seats The Quotable Sam Zell If you re the biggest kid on the block you can throw your weight around Of course I never was the big kid but I ve made up for it over the years The true test of an entrepreneur is someone who spends his life constantly testing his limits The definition of an idiot is someone who has reached their goals I don't do business with anybody who's not afraid and I won't hire anybody who is confident to the point where fear is not very close to the surface I've often said that fear and courage are cousins and very closely related Extremism in the pursuit of opportunity is not a vice If you've seen me step over the edge it's only to get you to take a few steps toward the line The eleventh commandment is Thou shalt not take oneself seriously The best thing to have in the world is a monopoly and if you can't have a monopoly you want an oligopoly I'm more than willing to leave all the rest of the highly competitive world to everybody else To create an enormously successful corporation that provides both opportunity and sustenance for employers today and a future for them tomorrow that's the challenge That's what everybody should be talking about Not my f-cking language because it doesn't matter I think it was Confucius who said that Money talks and bullshit walks
