Rudi Weisweiler

Managing A Foreign Exchange Department A Manual Of Effective Practice:

Managing a Foreign Exchange Department Rudi Weisweiller, 1991 The purpose of this book is to help bankers in their task of establishing developing and supervising foreign exchange departments The essays included provide insightful and explanatory comments of a general nature in an area where no two institutions are likely to have similar needs or opportunities The scarcity of books on foreign exchange departments is largely due to this diversity Rudi Weisweiller's edited collection will appeal to the bankers who want to collaborate closely and successfully with personnel in foreign exchange departments and also to those actually engaged in the day to day work of those departments This is partly a book for foreign exchange dealers and partly a book about them Each contributor to this book is experienced and still active in the field of foreign exchange Their accumulated experience has led to this knowledgeable volume which will be useful to present and future practitioners as a general overview of the foreign exchange department in the modern financial institution
