Natural Jewboy William Levy, 1981 The Richard Peabody Reader Richard Peabody, Michael Dirda, 2015-04-01

Filling an important gap in the literary world The Richard Peabody Reader is a wide ranging selection of this great writer's poetry and prose As a publisher Peabody's steadfast dedication to that which is new challenging innovative and dynamic has won him a wide reputation among writers whose work he has championed This volume demonstrates those same values embodied in nearly four decades of fiercely smart sophisticated and often very funny writing From his first collection of poems I'm in Love with the Morton Salt Girl to his most recent collection of short stories Blue Suburban Skies Peabody has established and developed a thoroughly unique voice both warm and piercing to deliver content that ranges from the hilarious as in the short story Flea Wars to the bittersweet as in the poem The Other Man is Always French to the elegiac as in the poem in Civil War Pieta to the absurd as in the rollicking farce of the short story Bad Day at Ikea Peabody's aesthetic is all embracing strands of punk beat experimental feminist and political protest literary influences blend with the purely romantic to create a body of work that is both profound and pleasing

Jew Boy Alan M. Kaufman, 2017-09-15 Jew Boy is Alan Kaufman's riveting memoir of being raised by a Jewish mother who survived the Holocaust This pioneering masterpiece the very first memoir of its kind by a member of the Second Generation is Kaufman's coming of age account by turns hilarious and terrifying written with irreverent humor and poetic introspection Throughout the course of his memoir Kaufman touches on the pain guilt and confusion that shape the lives and characters of American born children of Holocaust survivors Kaufman struggles to comprehend what it means to be Jewish as he deals with the demons haunting his mother and attempts to escape his wretched home life by devoting himself to high school football He eventually hitchhikes across the country coming face to face with the phantoms he fled Taking us from the streets of the Bronx to the highways of America the kibbutzim and Israeli army to personal rebirth in San Francisco and finally to a final reckoning in Germany Jew Boy shines with the universal humanity of a brilliant writer embracing the gift of life Kaufman s fierce passion will leave no reader untouched Jew Boy in Goy Town H. Charles Bluming,2000-09-30 This is a story about the rites of passage of a young boy growing up in the Catskill Mountains before it became the Borscht Belt The author shares his lusts and loves his young hopes and dreams his fears and feats of bravery He writes of a time when there were no fancy hotels with elaborate meals and famous entertainers It was a time of small entrepreneurs opening boarding houses to accommodate city folk who could not afford to vacation in hotels It is also the story of a familys struggle to overcome poverty and to cope with neighbors who were sometimes hostile because of religious differences and sometimes gracious despite religious differences The author looks back nostalgically at the interdependence of siblings despite their rivalries and the unquestioning love and cooperation within a family struggling to succeed through emergencies catastrophes and aggravations It is a well rounded history of love hope and aspirations and the down to earth experiences of dealing with life in the not so long ago past Throughout our lifetime together my husband shared many of these experiences with me He is now sharing them with you I am grateful to have been invited into his past I hope you will be too Mildred Bluming BA MA School Psychologist Los Angeles Unified School District International
