Nature's Sternest Painter Oliver F. Sigworth, 1965 Nature's Sternest Painter Oliver Sigworth, 1965-06 Nature's Sternest Painter Oliver F. Sigworth, 1965 The Literary Economy of Jane Austen and George Crabbe Colin Winborn, 2017-11-28 Though Jane Austen 1775 1817 and the poet George Crabbe 1754 1832 each wrote during the Napoleonic Wars no full length study has considered the importance of these pivotal events to their writing In The Literary Economy of Jane Austen and George Crabbe the author argues that both writers were unusually responsive to the economic anxieties specific to wartime occasioned especially by the Napoleonic trade embargo imposed on Britain from 1806 to 1812 and shared a particular concern with the economizing of space The author's term spatial economy refers to the practice of turning available resources to the best possible account which these authors applied even to the practice of writing as they strove to preserve space on the page Austen in her letters and Crabbe in the couplet Their work displays a preoccupation with boundaries pressure and containment which also informs economic treatises published during this period Through close readings and fresh contextual and historical analysis that draws on the ideas of contemporary thinkers such as Thomas Malthus William Spence William Cobbett Arthur Young and Humphrey Repton Winborn not only establishes a close affinity between Austen and Crabbe but makes a convincing case for rethinking the relationship between the novel and poetry during the Romantic period Writing the Poetry of Place in Britain, 1700-1807 Elizabeth R. Napier, 2022-11-30 This book discusses the intrusion often inadvertent of personal voice into the poetry of landscape in Britain 1700 1807 It argues that strong conventions such as those that inhere in topographical verse of the period invite original poets to overstep those bounds while also shielding them from the repercussions of self expression Working under cover of convention in this manner and because for many of these poets place is tied in significant ways to personal history poets of place may launch unexpected explorations into memory personhood and the workings of consciousness This book thus supplements past largely political readings of landscape poetry turning to questions of self articulation and self expression in order to argue that the autobiographical impulse is a distinctive and innovative feature of much great eighteenth century poetry of place Among the poets under examination are Pope Thomson Duck Gray Goldsmith Crabbe Cowper Smith and Wordsworth
