A Guide to Speleological Literature of the English Language Diana E. Northup,1998 This is a family story of America s most famous cave explorer who was trapped and died in Sand Cave in 1925 That story has been told many times but never before has the complete life of Floyd Collins been presented Floyd s younger brother Homer tells how Floyd was fascinated with caves from his childhood of his discovery of the famous Crystal Cave on the home property and of the rescue attempts from the viewpoint of a brother so devoted that his extraordinary efforts to save Floyd were rewarded by his being removed from the premises while others inexperienced in working in caves carried on the unsuccessful attempt It is a warm story of a man whose love in life was exploring caves a man who endured his grim death with dignity and pride in his vocation Page 4 of cover Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series Library of Congress. story of the fatal love of a mulatto slave for his white owner's daughter. So controversial was Sab's theme of miscegenation and its parallel between the powerlessness and enslavement of blacks and the economic and matrimonial subservience of women that the book was not published in Cuba until 1914, seventy-three years after its original 1841 publication in Spain. Also included in the volume is Avellaneda's Autobiography (1839), whose portrait of an intelligent, flamboyant woman struggling against the restrictions of her era amplifies the novel's exploration of the patriarchal oppression of minorities and women. A worthy addition to scholarship in Latin American studies, useful in comparative literature and social history courses covering such writers as Harriet Beecher Stowe, Jorge Isaacs, Alejo Carpentier, or Ramon del Valle Inclán.
