Naughty Innocence:

Erotic Innocence James Russell Kincaid, 1998 Explores the current preoccupation with child molesting and children's sexuality and the ways that this degree of fascination is itself suspect Theatre Magazine, 1919 The Cute and the Cool Gary Cross, 2004-04-01 The twentieth century was by any reckoning the age of the child in America Today we pay homage at the altar of childhood heaping endless goods on the young reveling in memories of a more innocent time and finding solace in the softly backlit memories of our earliest years We are the proclamation goes just big kids at heart And accordingly we delight in prolonging and inflating the childhood experiences of our offspring In images of the naughty but nice Buster Brown and the coquettish but sweet Shirley Temple Americans at mid century offered up a fantastic world of treats toys and stories creating a new image of the child as cute Holidays such as Christmas and Halloween became blockbuster affairs vehicles to fuel the bedazzled and wondrous innocence of the adorable child All this Gary Cross illustrates reflected the preoccupations of a more gentle and affluent culture but it also served to liberate adults from their rational and often tedious worlds of work and responsibility But trouble soon entered paradise The cute turned into cool as children following their parental example embraced the gift of fantasy and unrestrained desire to rebel against the saccharine excesses of wondrous innocence in deliberate pursuit of the anti cute Movies comic books and video games beckoned to children with the allures of an often violent sexualized and increasingly harsh worldview Unwitting and resistant accomplices to this commercial transformation of childhood adults sought over and over again in repeated and predictable cycles to rein in these threats in a largely futile jeremiad to preserve the old order Thus the cute child deliberately manufactured and cultivated has ironically fostered a profoundly troubled ambivalence toward youth and child rearing today Expertly weaving his way through the cultural artifacts commercial currents and parenting anxieties of the previous century Gary Cross offers a vibrant and entirely fresh portrait of the forces that have defined American childhood Naughty Innocence Bernie Heller, 1979 Memoirs of Innocence & Experience Innocent (Hondo) Chirawu, 2011-01-20 I was born Innocent Murambiwa Hondo on 11 January 1961 in Chinyemba Village Glendale Mazoe District of the then Rhodesia I had an official change of my maternal surname Hondo to my paternal surname Chirawu and acquired the middle name Blessed in 1983 Since my childhood I have always aspired to utilise every opportunity that helps me help my fellowman best I was brought up in colonial Rhodesia which was dominated by divide and rule politics in favour of the white minority population As a result the black child's school was far inferior compared to his white counterpart's There was also a deliberate public policy to provide the average black child with an education only adequate for him to perform a subordinate role to his white master and only 12% of the black children were expected to proceed to secondary education These would form the elite part of the society taking up occupations like nurses teachers clerks agricultural extension officers and others I was very fortunate to fall into the category of the elite group who made it through the bottleneck system into secondary education Salvation Army's Howard Secondary School which was a syndicate examination centre for The University of Cambridge whereby GCE O Level examinations were set and marked at that reputable university I sat for those Exams in November December 1978 and passed with grades B and C in 8 subjects including Maths Science and English thus obtaining a University of Cambridge GCE certificate in First Division I later on proceeded to a private institution Ranche House College where I did my English and Sociology at Advanced level My first job after school was working as a bank clerk for Standard Chartered Bank from May 1980 to Sept 1981 I then intercalated from banking to study for my Diploma in Theology at the International Bible Training Centre Lagos in 1982 resumed banking for a stint then did my initial teacher training from 1984 to 1987 I then taught Woodwork RE and English in Zimbabwean secondary schools for 11 years during which period I rose through the ranks of being an ordinary class teacher head of department Religious Education English and deputy head teacher While in full time teaching I managed to study for a degree in educational administration planning and policy studies as well as a part one in BA Media studies through Zimbabwe Open University the latter which was interrupted by socio politico economic problems in Zimbabwe that time I was doing all those study programmes paying the fees from my salary and without a penny of assistance from the government In Zimbabwe switching from being a teacher to being a journalist for the independent press was and still is like jumping from the frying pan into the fire In April 1999 I then joined the Daily News the then Zimbabwe s once most popular and best seller tabloid later banned and defunct from 2003 2010 where I served as a subeditor cum proofreader until the time I migrated to England in December 2001 By the time I left Zimbabwe there was every sign that the future of my colleagues our newspaper and I was very gloom After the bombings of our offices and printing press our then editor in chief Geoff Nyarota announced that due to the political situation and the hostility that time we were experiencing he could not guarantee our safety anymore So I had no choice but sell my family property buy a ticket flew into self exile in England and I have always lived here since then Later on I called my family over to join my stay in the country My grandmother my childhood mentor

Childhood Sexuality and AIDS Education Deevia Bhana, 2015-08-27 Primary schoolchildren are frequently shielded from education on sexuality and sexually transmitted diseases in an effort to protect their innocence In countries like South Africa where AIDS is particularly widespread it is especially important to address prevention with younger boys and girls as active social agents with the capacity to engage with AIDS as gendered and sexual beings This volume addresses the question of children s understanding of AIDS not simply in terms of their dependence but as active participants in the interpretation of their social worlds The volume draws on an interview and ethnographic based study of young children in two socially diverse South African primary schools as well as interviews conducted with teachers and mothers of young children It shows how adults sustain the production of childhood sexual innocence and the importance of scaling up programs in AIDS intervention gender and sexuality It makes significant contributions to the global debate around childhood sexualities gender and AIDS education

Sex Pistols John Scanlan, 2017-05-15 The explosive story of the Sex Pistols is now so familiar that the essence of what they represented has been lost in a fog of nostalgia and rock n roll cliché In 1976 the rise of the Sex Pistols was regarded in apocalyptic terms and the punks as visitors from an unwanted future bringing chaos and confusion In this book John Scanlan considers the Sex Pistols as the first successful art project of their manager Malcolm McLaren a vision born out of radical politics boredom and his deep and unrelenting talent for perverse opportunism As Scanlan shows McLaren deliberately set a collision course with establishments both conservative and counter cultural and succeeded beyond his highest expectations Scanlan tells the story of how McLaren's project designed in any case to fail foundered on the development of the Pistols into a great rock band and the inconvenient artistic emergence of John Lydon Moving between London and New York and with a fascinating cast of delinquents petty criminals and misfits Sex Pistols Poison in the Machine is not just a book about a band it is about the times the ideas the coincidences and the characters that made punk that ended with the Sex Pistols beaten bloody and overdosed sensationally self destructing on stage in San Francisco in January 1978 and that transformed popular culture throughout the world

The Passion of Ingmar Bergman Frank Gado, 1986 Acknowledged as one of the greatest filmmakers of this or any other time Bergman has with few exceptions written his own screenplays an uncommon practice in the film industry and for this practice critics refer to him as a literary filmmaker In this work Gado examines virtually the entire range of Bergman's literary output While treating the matter of the visual presentation of Bergman's films Gado concentrates on story and narrative and their relationship to Bergman's personal history Gado concludes that whatever the outward appearance of Bergman's works they contain an elementary psychic fantasy that links them all revealing an artist who hoped to be a dramatist the new Strindberg and who saw the camera as an extension of his pen

The Half-vanished Structure Magnus Ullén, 2004 This book takes issue with the tendency in twentieth century Hawthorne criticism to blur the distinction between symbolism and allegory Rejecting the long standing notion that Hawthorne is a symbolist in allegorical disguise Ullén argues that allegory is the key to understanding how religion sexuality aesthetics and politics are interwoven in Hawthorne's writings The study presents a model for allegorical interpretation of general applicability which is brought to bear on each of Hawthorne's mature romances and on the oft neglected Wonder Books written for children An unparalleled analysis of the formal intricacies of Hawthorne's writings this book is an eloquent plea for the necessity of grounding ideological analysis in aesthetical considerations
