getting to know much older Bowman Mercer through a pen pal service Pearl the author's mother eventually leaves her abusive brother and their inherited house to move to Wyoming as Bowman's wife She weathers their paltry circumstances and survives Jeanette's grueling birth and a near poisoning by a jealous woman As a little girl the author lived in homes with dirt floors and rarely bathed which often made her and her family her parents and sister Virginia an object of ridicule Nonetheless she lived a largely happy childhood developing a resilient stubborn nature and benefiting from her indulgent but well meaning parents and helpful townspeople With poignant empathy the author successfully traces Pearl's transformation from a pleasant shy beauty to an unkempt grouch prone to hysterics She also understands how to build suspense but inexplicably sabotages her own groundwork by giving away key plot elements in the chapter titles For instance a new neighbor's spooky friendliness skillfully brought to life on the page is prematurely explained by the chapter's title Graduation A Child Molester Kirkus Discoveries
