Randall Parrish, 2018-01-22 Excerpt from Contraband A Romance of the North Atlantic Carrington lived on Long Island and I talked with him on the phone There were to be twelve in the party the names of two who were former acquaintances alone being mentioned in our brief conversation The yacht was lying at Tompkinsville provisioned and ready for the sea I must be on board by three o'clock the following day and he gave me quite explicit instructions as to the best mode of reaching the vessel The remainder of the day was passed in calling upon certain old acquaintances in the city and the reading of special newspaper editions depicting the prospect of war in Europe As Spain was in no way likely to become involved I merely perused these reports with languid interest About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Contraband Randall Parrish, 2013-11 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book
