or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Navajo Lifeways Maureen Trudelle Schwarz, 2001 I think what is always really amazing to me is that Navajo are never amazed by anything that happens Because it is like in a lot of our stories they are already there Sunny Dooley Navajo Storyteller During the final decade of the twentieth century Navajo people had to confront a number of challenges from unexplained illness the effects of uranium mining and problem drinking to threats to their land rights and spirituality Yet no matter how alarming these issues Navajo people made sense of them by drawing guidance from what they regarded as their charter for life their origin stories Through extensive interviews Maureen Trudelle Schwarz allows Navajo to speak for themselves on the ways they find to respond to crises and chronic issues In capturing what Navajo say and think about themselves Schwarz presents this southwestern people's perceptions values and sense of place in the world

American Folk Legend Wayland D. Hand, 2023-11-10 The symposium on American folk legend organized by UCLA in 1969 marked a significant step toward addressing a neglected area in folklore scholarship Held from June 19 to 22 the conference brought together eleven delegates from the United States and Canada along with staff members from the guest institution to discuss the challenges and developments in American folk legend study The conference provided a platform for notable contributions from figures such as Richard M Dorson Robert A Georges Linda D gh and others Discussions covered diverse aspects of folk legend including definition classification structure and socio psychological values and featured explorations of regional Hispanic and Latin American folklore The proceedings underscored the field's early stage of development in the United States and highlighted the need for comprehensive collections surveys of legend genres and thematic studies The conference suggested that once these foundational efforts are in place many ambiguities surrounding American legends could be clarified Participants advocated for a more systematic approach akin to the rigor applied to folk song and ballad research to achieve a better understanding of American legendry These discussions pointed to the need for fieldwork and scholarly attention to uncover and classify legends which would enable scholars to undertake meaningful analyses of American folklore In summary the conference not only aimed to share existing knowledge but also served as a call to action for greater scholarly focus on American legends The organizers expressed hope that the symposium would inspire new research stimulate the discovery of published materials and encourage scholars to map out specific research areas within American folk legend This event laid the groundwork for a more systematic and expansive study of folklore in the United States advancing an often overlooked field toward a more structured and accessible discipline This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1971 NAVAHO LEGENDS WASHINGTON. MATTHEWS,1969 Songs of Life Gill,2023-09-20 Scholarly monographs on the iconography of indigenous North American religions Wastelanding Traci Brynne Voyles,2015-05-15 Wastelanding tells the history of the uranium industry on Navajo land in the U S Southwest asking why certain landscapes and the peoples who inhabit them come to be targeted for disproportionate exposure to environmental harm Uranium mines and mills on the Navajo Nation land have long supplied U S nuclear weapons and energy programs By 1942 mines on the reservation were the main source of uranium for the top secret Manhattan Project Today the Navajo Nation is home to more than a thousand abandoned uranium sites Radiation related diseases are endemic claiming the health and lives of former miners and nonminers alike Traci Brynne Voyles argues that the presence of uranium mining on Din Navajo land constitutes a clear case of environmental racism Looking at discursive constructions of landscapes she explores how environmental racism develops over time For Voyles the wasteland where toxic materials are excavated exploited and dumped is both a racial and a spatial signifier that renders an environment and the bodies that inhabit it pollutable Because environmental inequality is inherent in the way industrialism operates the wasteland is the other through which modern industrialism is established In examining the history of wastelanding in Navajo country Voyles provides an environmental justice history of uranium mining revealing how just as civilization has been defined on and through savagery environmental privilege is produced by portraying other landscapes as marginal worthless and pollutable Navajo and the Animal People Steve Pavlik,William B Tsosie,2014-07-01 This text examines the traditional Navajo relationship to the natural world Specifically how the tribe once related to the Animal People and particularly a category of animals which they collectively referred to as the naatl eetsoh the ones who hunt These animals like Native Americans were once viewed as impediments to progress requiring extermination
