Navigating a New World Lloyd Axworthy, 2003 In Navigating a New World Lloyd Axworthy charts how we can become active citizens in the demanding world of the twenty first century to make it safer more sustainable and more humane Throughout he emphasizes the human story As we meet refugees from civil war and drought child soldiers and landmine victims the moral imperative is clear this is a deeply compassionate appeal to confront poverty war and environmental disaster Before Lloyd Axworthy entered global politics human security a philosophy calling for global responsibility to the interests of individuals rather than to the interests of the nation state or multi national corporations was a controversial and unfamiliar idea When put into action human security led to an international ban on landmines initiatives to curtail the use of child soldiers and the formation of the International Criminal Court Today with conflict raging across the planet and building the need for a humane secure international governance is more vital than ever So how can Canada reject a world model dominated by U S policy military force and naked self interest How can we rethink a global world from the perspective of people our security our needs our promise our dreams Lloyd Axworthy delivers recommendations that are both practical and radical ranging from staunch Canadian independence from the U S to environmental as well as political security from rules to govern intervention when nations oppress their own citizens to codes of conduct on arms control and war crimes Arresting and provocative Navigating a New World lays out just why Canada has the skills to lead the world into a twenty first centuryless nightmarish than the last and help make the world safer and more just for us all This is a call for action from one of Canada s most eloquent statesmen and thinkers and is essential reading for all Canadians Where is the line we draw in setting out the boundaries for being responsible for others Is it simply family and close friends Do we stop at the frontiers of our own country Does our conscience our sense of right or wrong take us as far as the crowded camps of northern Uganda surrounded by land mines attacked repeatedly by an army made largely of child soldiers I believe we in Canada have a special vocation to help in the building of a more secure order We need not be confined to our self interest from Navigating a New World takes another step away from God's truth and into greater moral and spiritual relativism. If your view of life is fed by a steady diet of television news and popular opinion, you'll find yourself starved, parched and confused. But there is a way for your soul to be satisfied and at peace during these turbulent times. The answer is to turn those hungers, questions and desires towards God. These meditations offer a daily serving of God's Word along with practical insights from beloved pastor and author John Piper. Each reading reorients you to the eternal rather than the popular. In a world where ephemeral feelings are valued more than firm facts and eternal joys, each selection will awaken you to the truth of who God is and who you are. These 120 devotional readings celebrate God's sovereignty in every aspect of our world: from how to feed our soul, the danger of hero worship and loving our enemies to suffering, having a passion for purity and ways we can be a refuge for our children. This collection offers a daily feast of truth and wisdom that places God right where He belongs: at the center of our lives. These meditations originally appeared in John Piper's Pierced by the Word, Life as a Vapor and A Godward Heart. YOU ARE INVITED TO ENJOY THE RAREST OF TREASURES. The world tries to distract our minds, deaden our hearts, water down our beliefs. If there are no absolutes, then we can pursue whatever tickles our fancy. We are the captain of our destiny. But sadly, the result is that we remain hopelessly adrift in a constantly changing sea of confusion. There is a better answer. Rather than numb our soul, we can fully satisfy it. Instead of letting the world squeeze us into its mold, we can be molded into sons and daughters of God. The solution is to feast on God's Word and drink deep from His river of life. These daily meditations invite us into this central promise about God: You are good and do good. Teach me your statutes. Psalm 119:68. Discover the supremacy of God in every area of your life and as the only source of a truly satisfied soul. Holding the Bully's Coat Linda McQuaig, 2010-06-04. As the Bush administration has turned the United States into a belligerent and lawless force in the world, the Canadian government has followed in close step. Attempting to please our powerful neighbour, Ottawa has abandoned Canada's traditional role as a leading peacekeeping nation and instead adopted a more militaristic, warlike stance, battling insurgents in Afghanistan as a junior partner in the U.S. war on terror. Ottawa has also abandoned Canada's traditional attempt to be a fair-minded mediator and conciliator, most notably in the Middle East conflict. And under the government of Stephen Harper, Canada has joined the United States in becoming a leading obstructionist in worldwide efforts to deal with climate change, perhaps the most urgent issue on the international agenda. The switch in direction evident in these positions has redefined the way Canada operates in the world, transforming our country into a helpful assistant to an aggressive U.S. power increasingly out of sync with our European allies and with the rest of the world. As in all her previous books, Linda McQuaig strips away the comforting illusions peddled by those in our elite. With her trademark combination of research, analysis, irreverence and passion, McQuaig shows how the elite has pushed us down a path with far-reaching consequences for us as a nation and for our ability to find our own way in the world. The Last Beacon Nathaniel Crowe, 2025-01-21.
