Identification Abdul R. JanMohamed, 2020-11-29 This volume investigates how four socially constructed identities race gender class and caste can be rethought as matrices designed to accumulate various kinds of socio economic values and to translate and transfer these values from one group to another Essays in the anthology also attempt to compare the mechanisms deployed by various groups to consolidate identificatory investments Drawn mainly for the fields of literary and cultural studies the essays are grouped in four categories Essays collected under Theoretical Approaches scrutinize the relative value of various approaches those collected under Considerations of Race Gender and Sexual Orientation examine the interaction between these three categories in formation of identities those grouped under Comparative Analysis of African American and Dalit Writing provide comparative analyses of the literary productions of these two oppressed groups and finally those under The Persistence of Racialized Perceptions focus on the role of ideologically inflected perception of European colonizers and the persistence of such perception in the categorization and treatment of colonial migrants to the metropolis

Status and Sacredness Murray Milner, 1994 Status and Sacredness provides a new theory of status and sacral relationships and a provocative reinterpretation of the Indian caste system and Hinduism Milner shows how in India and many other social contexts status is a key resource and that sacredness can be usefully understood as a special form of status By analyzing the nature of this resource Milner is able to provide powerful explanations of the key features of the social structure culture and religion He argues against the widely held view that the Indian caste system is best understood as a unique cultural development demonstrating that many of the seemingly exotic features are variations on themes common to other societies Milner's analysis is rooted in a new theoretical framework called resource structuralism that helps to clarify the nature and significance of power and symbolic capital The book thus provides a bold new analysis of India an innovative approach to the analysis of religion and an important contribution to social theory

Marriage Proposals Anita Bernstein, 2008-12 The essays in Marriage Proposals envision a variety of scenarios in which adults would continue to join themselves together seeking permanent companionship and sustenance linking sexual intimacy to a long commitment usually caring for each other and building new families What would disappear are the legal consequences associated with marriage No joint income tax return no immigration privileges like the fiancé visa or the right to bring in a husband or wife no special statuses for prison visits or hospital decisions no prerogative to remain silent in court by claiming confidential marital communications no pension entitlements no marital benefits and detriments regarding criminal or civil liability The anthology makes a unique contribution amid the two marriage furors of the day same sex marriage and the Bush Administration's marriage movement that marrying is good and more marriages would be better for society Abolishing the legal category of marriage is the only policy suggestion in current American discourse that speaks to both causes Activists on both sides of the same sex marriage fight along with marriage movement partisans all seek improvement through law reform Marriage

Proposals gives them a viable reform abolition of marriage as a legal status for fighting battles in the courtroom and the streets Contributors include Anita Bernstein Peggy Cooper Davis Martha Albertson Fineman Linda C McClain Marshall Miller Lawrence Rosen Mary Lyndon Shanley and Dorian Solot Chaste Wives and Prostitute Sisters Anuja

Gender presents a vivid description of everyday life in order to explore the concept of performance for an anthropology of gender. A detailed and evocative account of the lives of men and women in a South Indian fishing community reveals new ways of framing gender relations, the body and kinship. The ethnographic account is set within the context of social and cultural theory, notably the ideas of Judith Butler, Pierre Bourdieu and Michel Foucault. The study sheds new light on the ways in which gender is understood as both performative that is enacted through everyday practices and also substantial and embodied that is marked out in the separate sexual fluids and procreative capacities of husbands and wives.

Religions of the East Stephen Hunt, 2017-05-15 Under the rubric of Religions of the East which includes Buddhism, Hinduism, Sikhism, Jainism and a myriad of Chinese religious philosophies are a vast range of views concerning human sexuality. These contrasting attitudes are mapped through this volume on Religions of the East in The Library of Essays on Sexuality and Religion series. Part 1 presents previously published articles that explore several Eastern Religions in the way they construct sexuality through expressions of their pertinent holy writings and belief systems as applied in differing historical and cultural contexts. Part 2 takes sexual renunciation and asceticism as its focus through the traditions of Hinduism, Jainism and the Chinese religious systems. Part 3 explores the connection between sexuality, gender and sexuality in Hindu and Buddhist customs in varied social settings. The final part of the volume includes articles examining Eastern religions in their attitudes towards sexual variants including bi-sexuality, trans sexuality and contested sexual categories.

Comp Ency Anthropology Tim Ingold, 2021-12-24 This comprehensive survey of contemporary thought in biological, social and cultural anthropology sets the foundation for their future development and integration. The principal rationale behind the Encyclopedia is to overcome the division and fragmentation within the approaches of the humanities and natural sciences to anthropology. It emphasizes interconnections between perspectives and sub-disciplines producing a complete perspective on what it means to be human. The work consists of three parts: Humanity, Culture and Social Life, and 40 major contributions. Part One emphasizes human beings as members of a species, how that species differs from others, how it has evolved and how human populations have adapted to and in turn transformed their environments. Part Two deals with the origin and structure of human culture and on the role of culture in action, perception and cognition. Part Three examines the various aspects of the relationships and processes that are carried on by persons and groups in the course of social life. Useful features such as cross references within the text, full biographical references, suggestions for further reading and carefully illustrated line drawings make this an indispensable resource for all students of anthropology or sociology.

Making of Distinctions Antony Palackal, Nandita Chaudhary, Giuseppina Marsico, 2021-01-01 The volume revolves around the theme inclusive oppositions in social sciences that address the issue of making of distinctions and create artificial dichotomies and dualistic view of society. It is set against the currents of systematic reduction of anthropodiversity and psychodiversity which appears as a pathology of the current neo-liberalist and colonialist model of development. The volume is an attempt to overcome the colonial tendencies and forces to standardize and homogenize various categories and institutions in society by establishing structural relationality and intersectionality between the parts of the whole ecosystem where in the human and non human intersect and interact The volume brings together a unique collaboration in the field of Cultural Psychology and offers the intellectual tools to grasp how a syncretic understanding of Identity and Culture unfolds particularly in the key domain of gender The chapters and commentaries uncover cultural dynamics and identity formation from a specific location the region of Kerala in south western India The chapters and commentaries in this volume illustrates that Kerala is a cultural micro cosmos in which gender identity religion ethnicity caste global market and tradition intersect to create complex and multiple subjects that do not fit in binary categorizations The compiled volume will be of great value to scholars researchers and academicians in Social Sciences particularly Cultural Psychology Social Psychology Sociology Social Work Political Science Philosophy Anthropology and Economics
