Nineteenth Century French Verse:

Nineteenth-Century French Poetry Christopher Prendergast, 1990-01-26 This volume of essays written by scholars from a wide range of critical and theoretical viewpoints presents a fresh approach to the study of nineteenth century French poetry Each of the eleven essays on different poets from Lamartine to Mallarmé and Laforgue focuses on the detailed organisation of a single poem The method of close reading has been adopted in order to effect an introduction to the analysis of the basics of poetic language sound metre syntax etc and in order to explore and illustrate some of the claims and arguments about poetry arising from developments in the prevailing literary theory Theoretical positions are posed and tested in the terms of practical analysis and interpretation Christopher Prendergast's introduction to the volume situates the essays in a series of general perspectives and contexts and Clive Scott has provided an appendix on French versification

French Poetry of the Nineteenth Century Elliott Mansfield Grant, 1954 French Poetry of the Nineteenth Century Elliott Mansfield Grant, 2003-01-01 Representative French Lyrics of the Nineteenth Century George Neely Henning (ed), 1913 Counter-Modernities in Nineteenth-Century French Literature Robert St. Clair, 2025-07-31 Counter Modernities in Nineteenth Century French Literature explores a counterview of modernity in late nineteenth century French literature 1848 1891 The principal claim of this book is that what we find in the works of Baudelaire Rimbaud and Flaubert is a form of writing against the grain of history not the elegant lyricism of history's victors but a use of literature against the erasures of past injustices and for those lost futurities upon which the order of the present is founded What we find in other words is a critical literary archive of the powerless that persists in contesting the legitimacy of the powerful which persists in haunting the nineteenth century every bit as much as it does our own achingly out of joint present The story Counter Modernities seeks to tell is in other words about the meaning of loss and the significance of losers as possible figures of opposition to the dominant order in nineteenth century French literature that is also a story about modernity as an aesthetic politics What brings together the authors in this study however cannot be reduced to the biographical that is to the uneven successes financial hardships and in one case outright failure i.e. Rimbaud shared by the authors in the literary market of their lifetime At stake in this study is not an account of the ironies of literary history wherein to gloss Walter Benjamin's take on Baudelaire a prior and benighted era sees little of interest in an artist in which a later epoch recognizes the genius of modernity Rather Constellations of Loss in Baudelaire Rimbaud and Flaubert demonstrates how each author in this critical corpus insists on tarrying with history as an experience of irrevocable loss each lingers with history as a force of negations and thereby insists on the significance of historical setbacks and political defeats that seem to affect if not more dramatically wipe out the collective hopes of entire generations Each one gives us losers as subjects who matter in the nineteenth century Baudelaire Flaubert Rimbaud narratives of historical defeat that are as negative as they are meaningful Baudelaire Flaubert or the contours of events whose meanings and narratives are themselves lost Baudelaire Rimbaud whose meanings remain in other words perhaps less absent than open ended a possible grammar for what may come next when hope seems lost and dreams dashed Indeed as this books shows it is precisely in its representation of history as a dilemma or undoing of meaningfulness a problem of legibility and not knowingness that we can most fully recognize the formal calling cards of literary modernity ironic undecidabilities and difficulties infinite interpretability and the death of the author the dissolution of previously stable cultural and historical narratives or forms of subjectivity formal breaks with semantically oriented modes of representation and so on Six French Poets of the Nineteenth Century E. H. Blackmore, A. M. Blackmore, 2000 Poetry will no longer keep in time with action it will be ahead of it Arthur Rimbaud The active and colourful lives of the poets of nineteenth century France are reflected in the diversity and vibrancy of their works At once sacred and profane passionate and satirical these remarkable and innovative poems explore the complexities of human emotion and ponder the great questions of religion and art They form as rich a body of work as any one age and language has ever produced This unique anthology includes generous selections from the six nineteenth century French poets most often read in the English speaking world today Lamartine Hugo Baudelaire Verlaine Rimbaud and Mallarmé Modern translations are printed opposite the original French verse and the edition contains over a thousand lines of poetry never previously translated into English Parnassus in France Aaron Schaffer, 1929 A Century of French Verse William John Robertson, 1895 Representative French lyrics of the nineteenth century George Neely Henning, 1913 Twelve French Poets, 1820-1900 Douglas Parmée, 1957 Pleasure and Pain in Nineteenth-century French Literature and Culture David Evans, Kate Griffiths, 2008 From Sade at one end of the nineteenth century to Freud at the other via many French novelists and poets pleasure and pain become ever more closely entwined Whereas the inseparability of these themes has hitherto been studied from isolated perspectives such as psychoanalysis sadism and sado masochism melancholy or post structuralist textual jouissance the originality of this collaborative volume lies in its exploration of how pleasure and pain function across a broader range of contexts The essays collected here demonstrate how the complex relationship between pleasure and pain plays a vital role in structuring nineteenth century thinking in prose fiction Balzac Flaubert Musset Maupassant Zola verse and the memoir as well as socio cultural studies medical discourses aesthetic theory and the visual arts Featuring an international selection of contributors representing the full range of approaches to scholarship in nineteenth century French studies historical literary cultural art historical philosophical and sociopolitical the volume attests to the vitality coherence and interdisciplinarity of nineteenth century French studies and will be of interest to a wide cross section of scholars and students of French literature society and culture Twentieth-Century French Poetry Hugues Azérad, Peter Collier, 2010-05-20 Modern French poetry is unique in the boldness and creativity of its experiments in form and genre from classical verse to vers libre from calligrammes to prose poems and po sie sonore This anthology includes 32 poems by French and francophone poets each followed by an accessibly written detailed commentary The different approaches adopted in the close readings by specialists in their field reflect the major trends in current literary criticism and theory A foreword by one of France s foremost poets Yves Bonnefoy a general introduction and an afterword provide a helpful theoretical framework for the study of modern poetry An extensive bibliography concise biographies of the poets and a glossary of literary terms are included Students of French and of comparative literature will gain a deeper understanding of the development of French verse and of the artistic movements especially in the visual arts which have shaped twentieth century French poetry

English Responses to French Poetry 1880-1940 Jennifer Higgins,2017-12-02 Between 1880 and 1940 English responses to French poetry evolved from marginalised expressions of admiration associated with rebellion against the establishment to mainstream mutual exchange and appreciation The translation of poetry underwent a simultaneous evolution from attempts to produce definitive renderings to definitions of translation as an ongoing generative process at the centre of literary debate This study traces the impact of French poetry in England via a wide range of translations by major poets of the time as well as renderings by now forgotten writers It explores poetry and translations beyond the limits of the usual canon and identifies key moments of influence from late 19th century English homages to Victor Hugo as a liberal icon to Ezra Pound re interpreting Charles Baudelaire for the 20th century

Peripheries of Nineteenth-century French Studies Timothy Bell Raser,2002 The French nineteenth century came to its full fruition only recently herald and instigator as it was of some of the most important developments of the twentieth century This volume offers a wide ranging selection of scholarly approaches to the works of the French nineteenth century articles that show how pertinent the texts of that moment are to an understanding of our own modernity

Understanding French Poetry Stamos Metzidakis,2001 Baudelaire in Song Helen Abbott,2017-11-03 Why do we find it hard to explain what happens when words are set to music This study looks at the kind of language we use to describe word music relations both in the academic literature and in manuals for singers or programme notes prepared by professional musicians Helen Abbott's critique of word music relations interrogates overlaps emerging from a range of academic disciplines including translation theory adaptation theory word music theory as well as critical musicology musicology and cognitive neuroscience It also draws on other resources whether adhesion science or financial modelling to inform a new approach to analysing song in a model proposed here as the assemblage model The assemblage model has two key stages of analysis The first stage examines the bonds formed between the multiple layers that make up a song setting including metre prosody form structure sound repetition semantics and live performance options The second stage considers the overall outcome of each song in terms of the intensity or stability of the words and music present in a song accretion dilution Taking the work of the major nineteenth century French poet Charles Baudelaire 1821-67 as its main impetus the volume examines how Baudelaire's poetry has inspired composers of all genres across the globe from the 1860s to the present day The case studies focus on Baudelaire song sets by European composers between 1880 and 1930 specifically Maurice Rollinat Gustave Charpentier Alexander Gretchaninov Louis Vierne and Alban Berg Using this corpus it tests out the assemblage model to uncover what happens to Baudelaire's poetry when it is set to music It factors in the realities of song as a live performance genre and reveals which parameters of song emerge as standard for French text setting and where composers diverge in their approach
