Pacific Coastal Liners Gordon R. Newell, Joe Williamson, 1959 Picture history of coastwise passenger liners Companion volume to Pacific tugboats and Pacific steamboats      Pacific Coastal Liners Gordon Newell, Joe Williamson, 1987-01-01

Coastal Passenger Liners of the British Isles Nick Robins, 2011-09-12 At the beginning of the last century it was possible to sail from London to Glasgow via the south coast ports and Belfast returning along the east coast from either Dundee or Leith for as little as five pounds Those were the days when 300 passengers were landed twice weekly at Grangemouth or Dundee from the London boat and the coastal passenger and cargo liner was in its heyday catering both for the first class tourist as well as offering keenly priced second class fares for the like of football fans following away matches Sadly these wonderful steamer services are now largely forgotten but this new book will stir fond memories of the ships and their coastal voyages The Depression of the 1930s coupled with competition from both railway and the motor coach were to spell the end for many of the coastal liners while heavy losses incurred in World War II left only a few ships each offering just a handful of passenger berths The story of their one hundred years of service is accompanied by numerous fascinating anecdotes and the book focuses as much on the social need for coastal passenger services the men and women who provided the services and the passengers who used them as it does on the nuts and bolts of the ships themselves This beautifully presented book will delight both ship enthusiasts and all those who enjoy the maritime and social history of the British Isles      Pacific Coast Miner, 1905      Pacific Steamers Will Lawson, 1927 The history rise and development of steamers on the Australian New Zealand and Western American Coasts      The Log, 1933      Those Beautiful Coastal Liners Robert D. Turner, 2001-01-01

A companion volume to Robert Turner's first book The Pacific Princesses Remembered for their elegance luxury and reliability the Princesses were the finest coastal liners on the Pacific coast They established an enduring reputation for elegance and beauty that remained unmatched for over sixty years Their names became legends along the coast The Princess Victoria Princess Kathleen and the lovely Princess Marguerite the last of the coastal liners are just a few of the beautiful steamships remembered      Ocean Liner Cargo Services Directory Mark Jerome Seidenberg, 1987      Seaboard, 1919

Pacific Marine Review, 1919      Containerized Cargo Statistics United States. Maritime Administration, 1983

Commerce Reports, 1925      Ocean Liners of the 20th Century Gordon Newell, 2017-01-12 With his vast collection of photographs and memorabilia combined with his skill as a writer Newell truly makes the ships and memories of them become living personalities How Jack London Count von Luckner Sir Ernest Shackleton and all other intrepid adventurers of the sea would have gloried in this book and present day sea rovers you how you will glory in it Here are the glamour majesty and color of the most exciting things ever built the mammoths of the sea Gordon Newell's salty stories and fine photos bring these monarchs and superliners to life so completely that you hear once more the deep throated whistle blasts as the ships knife their way out of the fog one after another I am not recording affection for the Mauretania as President of the United States but as civilian Franklin D Roosevelt who loves the sea its ships and the men who sail them writes F D R in his story Queen with a Fighting Heart Author Gordon Newell shares these sentiments The Kronprinz Wilhelm he writes was not a ship to give up easily Night was falling the darkness would give her a fighting chance The last of the fuel was shoveled into the furnaces The worn out engines were breaking their hearts for the ship out of the night she came the sky glowing red above the crowns of her belching funnels The white glow of acres of foam at her bow The guns of the British cruisers swung around
