Pacific Well-Being Jione Havea, 2024-03-29 This book makes space 1 for Pasifika contributions to academic conversations on critical topics and 2 for influencing the conversations to account for and thus reflect Pasifika ways and modes The critical topic that runs through the chapters is well being and the contributors were located at the time of writing in Pasifika Aotearoa Fiji Kioa Kiribati Samoa Tonga and Tuvalu but there are many more Pasifika voices and concerns than are represented in this work Nonetheless the ways in which this work seeks to influence the conversations on well being reflect the intersectional modes of thinking that native Pasifika Islanders share The essays are placed into three intersecting clusters well being of bodies and is lands well being of traditions and theologies and well being of imaginations and worldviews The rationale for this arrangement is that the well being of Pasifika requires attention to the present bodies and islands to the past traditions and theologies and to the future imaginations and worldviews The chapters address Pasifika questions and concerns and they are placed so that the conversations they spark can take place free of the traps of Western theories and disciplines with Pasifika accents and rhythms

Pacific Futures Warwick Anderson, Miranda Johnson, Barbara Brookes, 2018-11-30 How when and why has the Pacific been a locus for imagining different futures by those living there as well as passing through What does that tell us about the distinctiveness or otherwise of this sea of islands Foregrounding the work of leading and emerging scholars of Oceania Pacific Futures brings together a diverse set of approaches to and examples of how futures are being conceived in the region and have been imagined in the past Individual chapters engage the various and sometimes contested futures yearned for unrealized and even lost or forgotten that are particular to the Pacific as a region ocean island network destination and home Contributors recuperate

the futures hoped for and dreamed up by a vast array of islanders and outlanders from Indigenous federalists to Lutheran improvers to Cantonese small business owners making these histories of the future visible In so doing the collection intervenes in debates about globalization in the Pacific and how the region is acted on by outside forces and postcolonial debates that emphasize the agency and resistance of Pacific peoples in the context of centuries of colonial endeavor With a view to the effects of the slow violence of climate change the volume also challenges scholars to think about the conditions of possibility for future thinking at all in the midst of a global crisis that promises cataclysmic effects for the region Pacific Futures highlights futures conceived in the context of a modernity coproduced by diverse Pacific peoples taking resistance to categorization as a starting point rather than a conclusion With its hospitable approach to thinking about history making and future thinking one that is open to a wide range of methodological epistemological and political interests and commitments the volume will encourage the writing of new histories of the Pacific and new ways of talking about history in this field the region and beyond
