Short Story Index, 1994 Queen of Spades and Other Stories Alexander Pushkin, 2018-01-01 This collection of Pushkin's stories begins with The Queen of Spades perhaps the most celebrated short story in Russian literature. The young Hermann while watching some friends gambling hears a rumour of how an officer's grandmother is always able to predict the three winning cards in a game. He becomes obsessed with the woman and her seemingly mystical powers and seeks to extract the secret from her at any cost. This volume part of a new series of the complete works of Pushkin in English also includes Dubrovsky the story of a man's desire to avenge himself after his land is unjustly taken from him by an aristocrat. The Negro of Peter the Great a tale inspired by Pushkin's maternal grandfather and the unfinished story Egyptian Nights a meditation on poetry and the poet. Together they represent some of the most striking and enduring pieces of Pushkin's prose fiction. Readings and writings in America. The frozen deep, and other stories William Wilkie Collins, 1874 The Frozen Deep and Other Stories Wilkie Collins, 1874 Youth and Other Stories Mori Ōgai, 1994-05-01 Ōgai's 1862-1922 stature among modern Japanese writers is unparalleled but until recently his work in translation has languished in scholarly monographs and journals. Japan scholar Rimer has gathered several of Ōgai's best known stories and the first complete translation of a major work Seinen. Oburoni and Other Stories Andrew Rees, 2017-07-12 Oburoni symbolises the sense of individuality of being different and yet warmly accepted. So it is for John in a land far away from home. This sense of change pervades Brian and Pat's new home. Trish's search for a job and Tom's purchase while John's reflections on his life are echoed by Sonia on her long journey and the student's first assignment. Life involves family whether watching a favourite TV program welcoming long lost relatives or seeking a beloved son. All of which form the ingredients of these tales with their different themes and backgrounds peaking in the joy of New Year celebrations. The Girl in the Cornfield and Other Stories from the Wasteland James Whitmer, 2021-04-21 Contained herein are accounts from the Wasteland a curious realm teetering on the Edge of the Abyss between Heaven and Hell. It is in this oddity of mankind's own making that choices between good and evil hold center stage and are at the very heart of determining if one in fact has a soul. The red-hot dollar, and other stories from the Black Cat Herman Daniel Umbstaetter, Jack London, 2025-01-22 It lacked three minutes of five by the big clock in the tower when the east bound Chicago express rumbled into the station at Buffalo. The train had not yet come to a standstill when a hatless man jumped from the platform of the rear sleeping car and ran across the tracks into the depot restaurant. A few minutes later he reappeared carrying a cup of coffee in one hand and a small paper bag in the other. With these he hurriedly made his way back to the car through a straggling procession of drowsy tourists who were taking advantage of the train's five minutes stop to breathe the crisp morning air. The last of these had already resumed his seat when the man without a hat again appeared at the lunch counter returned the borrowed dishes and ordered coffee for himself. He had just picked up the cup and was raising it to his lips when the conductor's All aboard rang through the station.

The Baby Can Sing and Other Stories Judith Slater, 1999 Judith Slater's debut collection The Baby Can Sing and Other Stories was selected by Stuart Dybek as the 1998 Winner of the Mary McCarthy Prize in Short Fiction. The Baby Can Sing and Other Stories introduces a writer who approaches the world at a surprisingly oblique angle. Judith Slater writes in a prose dance, dramatizing the lives of ordinary people who wonder what they can do to bring more passion into their lives or at least less loneliness. The characters in these stories are a diverse bunch: a floral clerk with aspirations of being a ballet dancer, a photographer volunteering to take the pictures at his ex-girlfriend's wedding, a father playing the role of reluctant chaperon at his daughter's school dance, but all of them are alert to the moments of possibility, transcendence, and sometimes even magic that exist just under the surface of ordinary life. Slater is unafraid to employ the surreal or absurd twist in the title story, a woman creates a perfect baby in her mind; in Phil's Third Eye, a chance encounter at a Laundromat ends in a bizarre battle of wills; in Our New Life, a woman finds that her former therapist has decided to make the same drastic change in her own life as she had encouraged in her patients and a strange challenge is issued to decide who has taken the greater risk the narrator of Soft Money worried about job security in the large corporation she works for hits upon a unique solution to the problem of downsizing In vivid witty prose Judith Slater presents a world where people come together and make do as they learn to live with the odd possibilities in life Judith Slater grew up in Oregon and received her M F A in creative writing from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst Her stories have appeared in Redbook Seventeen Greensboro Review Sonora Review American Literary Review Beloit Fiction Journal and Colorado Review among other magazines She is an associate professor of English at the University of Nebraska Lincoln where she lives during the academic year She spends her summers in Ashland Oregon Judith Slater is a writer whose work rings true to experience her observation of the world is keenly reported

A Parisian Affair and Other Stories

Guy de Maupassant, 2004-06-24 Set in the Paris of society women prostitutes and small minded bourgeoisie and the isolated villages of rural Normandy that de Maupassant knew as a child the thirty three tales in this volume are among the most darkly humorous and brilliant short stories in nineteenth century literature They focus on the relationships between men and women as in the poignant fantasy of A Parisian Affair between brothers and sisters and between masters and servants

Through these relationships Maupassant explores the dualistic nature of the human character and his stories reveal both nobility civility and generosity and in stories such as At Sea and Boule de Suif vanity greed and hypocrisy Maupassant's stories repeatedly lay humanity bare with deft wit and devastating honesty When Darkness Falls and Other Stories
