Paddys Evening Out:

Paddys Evening Out John S. Goodall, 1973 Crossmaglen Paddy Said Patrick Joseph McEntegart, 2019 Once every generation there comes along a book that both lifts the spirit and inspires the mind Crossmaglen Paddy Said is one of those rare published gems This is not a book to be read just for laughs as it contains a mix of tragedy and comedy It is a true story All incidents mentioned happened as they are described and at that time and place In the words of an eminent professional who first read the manuscript This book does not follow any set plot or order Perhaps this is intentional and you are going for a James Joyce stream of consciousness effect or Beckett where everything happens with only one or two characters in one room on one day or Flann O'Brien's writings where there are surreal theories and weird characters and the reader has the sense of entering a strange world It has been compared by a Hollywood producer with Conor McPherson's Laurence Olivier award winning play The Weir which won the Play of the Year award in 1999 Crossmaglen Paddy Said contains authentic evidence of the British ships and regiments who exported the food off the island of Ireland during the period of the Great Hunger from 1845 to 1950 Inside it also draws a unique paralleled comparison between an incident that occurred relating to Crossmaglen on August 15 1971 and Boston Massachusetts on the March 5 1770 the most important date in American history In the second phase this book becomes an inspirational story which details and outlines the lifetime achievements of both Paddy and the narrator Paudraic Moore It then becomes a super motivational tool for its readers Paddy Dan Doyle, 2005-06 Paddy is a story about family life in Somerset Michigan during the first year of the American Civil War It's a novel of adventure intrigue romance and comedy set in a background of historical places many of which you can still see today as you drive along the Chicago Road from Jonesville through the Irish Hills to Clinton Christmas 1860 is far from joyous Clouds of war hover above a nation in disarray and a break up of the Union seems inevitable In a few months president elect Abraham Lincoln will be inaugurated Continuing unrest among the southern states has emboldened slaves to flee north with bounty hunters in pursuit and life in Somerset is about to change Paddy O Toole is the owner and driver of a stage coach that makes shuttle runs along the Chicago Road between the towns of Jonesville and Clinton Paddy's favorite stop is the Somerset Inn where Shella Heflin its famous cook works with young Mary Bunday in the kitchen Ransom Foster Paddy's dear friend and frequent passenger is extremely fond of Mary Bunday Whenever Ransom is on the stage Paddy times his arrival at the Somerset Inn for just before dark so the young lovers can be together Paddy the optimist loves everyone dearly and is always willing to help At home in Jonesville he spends most of his spare time with his friend Chauncy Coolahan the town's only undertaker With hilarious results Paddy often helps Coolahan In the summer Ransom Foster's life is in grave danger when he becomes secretly involved in a covert government assignment that puts him on Paddy's stage for a suspense filled trip through the Irish Hills As the war escalates each side tries to outmaneuver the other by inventing new methods of offence In the fall of 1861 the Federal Army developed and launched a manned aerial observation balloon and the U S Balloon Corps
