prepares a series of five reviews of contemporary novels to be delivered alone on a theatre stage to sold out audiences in Toronto and Montreal In A Love of Reading Adams has now gathered 18 of his most brilliant reviews from Jack Maggs by Peter Carey and The Poisonwood Bible by Barbara Kingsolver to A Fine Balance by Rohinton Mistry and Barney's Version by Mordecai Richler In them he skillfully interweaves a nimble and entertaining discussion of plot theme and characterization with fascinating historical biographical and literary context He is repeatedly drawn to the spectacle of less than perfect humans making their way in a hostile world and as a result a review by Robert Adams is almost always a hugely satisfying mix of rich pathos and abundant humour Famously Adams reads a book a day from which he selects only those novels that are truly extraordinary that have made him see some part of the world or some aspect of the human condition in a new light because for Adams the best books always take the reader on a journey with a destination very distant from the point of departure It should be not only a journey of discovery an exploration of the author's vision but also of risk By matching one's own vision to that of the author says Adams the reader enters an exciting negotiation to produce a new vision of his own This joint enterprise between reader and writer the shared risk and the wonder of discovery is the foundation of A Love of Reading For the last six years Robert Adams has presented an annual series of book reviews to sold out audiences Eighty per cent of Adams's 3 000 subscribers in Toronto and Montreal renew for the following season This book is a selection of modern classics from a discriminating and entertaining guide Perfect for reading groups Quill Quire noting the jump in sales of any book reviewed by Adams has called the phenomenon The Adams Effect

Paddy Machiavelli - How to Get Ahead in Irish Politics John Drennan,2014-09-19 The good the bad and the cynical how to get ahead in Irish politics It might appear strange that a 16th century Italian political philosopher should provide us with a roadmap to political power in Ireland but as John Drennan's tongue in cheek account Paddy Machiavelli makes clear the gap between the parish pump and the Renaissance palazzo is a narrow one indeed In fact observe the Irish body politic for long enough and the lines between the Florentine's faceless hero and our own D'Alton aristocrats begin to blur ever so slightly A veteran of countless Leinster House power plays Drennan takes inspiration from Machiavelli's The Prince dispensing invaluable advice for the aspiring politician such as how to cultivate the cloak of being an ordinary decent skin how to choose your scapegoats carefully and how to be a straight talker whilst embracing vagueness This hilarious account of the compromises that the Irish politician has to make in order to seize power is not just a celebration of the politics of cynical amorality it's a timely reminder of the role we play in choosing our leaders In this wildly entertaining book celebrated Sunday Independent columnist John Drennan is at his best The definitive guide to success in Irish politics Paddy Machiavelli will have you laughing and crying all the way to the ballot box Drennan's storytelling style is stage Irish and like a culchie Cicero he laces his brilliance with bile It is the politics of Paddy and in the tradition of Hall's Pictorial Weekly via Craggy Island Gerard Howlin The Sunday Times There is a fierce intelligence and fierce independence at work here No one escapes his gimlet eye and he brings to the whole bizarre ecosystem of the D il a unique perspective that of the insider who remains resolutely outside Brendan O Connor The Sunday Independent If Paddy really wants to know the story generally he asks Drennan first Lise Hand Irish Independent Drennan is one of the best pundits in Ireland He has an understanding of politics that is both instinctive and intellectual Pat Leahy The Sunday Business Post Drennan reads the political game like the sort of bookie who always leaves Cheltenham with a full satchel Ivan Yates Newstalk

Patrick Leigh Fermor: An Adventure Artemis Cooper,2013-10-15 Patrick Leigh Fermor's enviably colorful life took off when in 1934 at the age of eighteen he decided to walk across Europe In just over a year he had trekked through nine countries and taught himself three languages and his enthusiasm and curiosity for every kind of experience made him equally happy in caves or country houses among shepherds or countesses At the outbreak of war he left his lover Princess Balasha Cantacuzene in Romania and returned to England to enlist Commissioned into the Intelligence Corps he became one of the handful of Allied officers supporting the Cretan resistance to the German occupation In 1944 he commanded the Anglo Cretan team that abducted General Heinrich Kreipe and spirited him away to Egypt A journey to the Caribbean stays in monasteries and explorations all over Greece provided the subjects for his first books It was not until he and his wife had moved to southern Greece that he returned to his earliest walk In these books which took many years to write he created a vision of a prewar Europe which in its beauty and abundance has never been equaled Artemis Cooper has drawn on years of interviews and conversations with Leigh Fermor and his closest friends and has had complete access to his archive Her beautifully crafted biography portrays a man of extraordinary gifts no one wore their learning so playfully nor inspired such passionate friendship
