the many Celtic deities who were linked with animals and such natural phenomena as rivers and caves or who later became associated with local Christian saints And it explores in detail the rich variety of Celtic myths from early legends of King Arthur to the stories of the Welsh Mabinogi and from tales of heroes including C Chulainn Fionn mac Cumhaill and the warrior queen Medb to tales of shadowy otherworlds the homes of spirits and fairies What emerges is a wonderfully diverse and fertile tradition of myth making that has captured the imagination of countless generations introduced and explained here with compelling insight Cliffs End Farm Isle of Thanet, Kent Jacqueline I. McKinley, Matt Leivers, Jörn Schuster, Peter Marshall, 2015-02-05 Excavations at Cliffs End Farm Thanet Kent undertaken in 2004-5 uncovered a dense area of archaeological remains including Bronze Age barrows and enclosures and a large prehistoric mortuary feature as well as a small early 6th to late 7th century Anglo Saxon inhumation cemetery An extraordinary series of human and animal remains were recovered from the Late Bronze Age Middle Iron Age mortuary feature revealing a wealth of evidence for mortuary rites including exposure excarnation and curation The site seems to have been largely abandoned in the later Iron Age and very little Romano British activity was identified In the early 6th century a small inhumation cemetery was established Very little human bone survived within the 21 graves where the burial environment differed from that within the prehistoric mortuary feature but grave goods indicate females and males were buried here Richly furnished graves included that of a female buried with a necklace a pair of brooches and a purse as well as a male with a shield covering his face a knife and spearhead In the Middle Saxon period lines of pits possibly delineating boundaries were dug some of which contained large deposits of marine shells English Heritage funded an extensive programme of radiocarbon and isotope analyses which have produced some surprising results that shed new light on long distance contacts mobility and mortuary rites during later prehistory This volume presents the results of the investigations together with the scientific analyses human bone artefact and environmental reports
