Illustrated by Felix Kelly Elizabeth Burton, 1962 The dissolute years, 1935 The Pageant of Stuart England... Ill. by Felix Kelly Elizabeth Burton, 1962 The Dissolute Years Eduard Stucken, 1935 English, Irish, & Scottish Silver at the Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute, Beth Carver Wees, 1997 In this stunning catalog Wees curator of decorative arts at the Clark Art Institute shares her extensive knowledge of silver Robert Sterling Clark who established the Art Institute in 1955 preferred Huguenot silver especially that of Paul de Lamerie so his collection which contains typical objects from the early 16th to the mid 20th centuries is especially rich in 18th century examples Wees arranges this collection according to general function Dining Lighting etc and prefaces each chapter with exhaustively footnoted essays She accompanies each item with crisp black and white photographs a wealth of description and helpful commentary Analogous to Kathryn Buhler's standard catalog of American silver in Boston's Museum of Fine Arts this is a wonderful tool for researching makers and hallmarks comparing stylistic elements or just marveling at the beauty of an extraordinary collection While not intended to be a historical compendium this informative visual feast belongs in all silver reference collections and will also certainly appeal to individual collectors 19 colour 1 222 b w illustrations The Temple of the Mind John R. Mulder, 1969 Women of the Four Winds Elizabeth Fagg Olds, 1999 Annie Smith Peck attempted seven times to climb Peru's highest mountain Delia Akeley hunted big game in Africa Marguerite Harrison spied in Russia for America Louise Arner Boyd led expeditions to perilous East Greenland Precursors of the modern Jane Goodalls and Sally Rides these women represent a fascinating but forgotten era in the literature of exploration History Robert Blackey, 2011-02-01 This book includes 14 essays written by the author that provide practical advice for teachers and students to assist both in achieving the best results for teaching learning and writing about history Part 1 offers suggestions for enlivening classroom presentations Part 2 addresses the problems of teaching students to write and part 2 focuses on history tests and exams including ways to construct and respond to essay questions English Students at Leiden University, 1575-1650 Daniela Prögler, 2016-05-13 The oldest and most renowned Dutch university Leiden was an attractive proposition for travelling foreign students in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Alongside offering an excellent academic program and outstanding facilities Leiden was also able to cater to the desires of noble students providing various extra curricular activities Leiden was the most popular continental university among English students and this book investigates the 831 English students who studied there between 1575 and 1650 The preference of English students for Leiden was on the one hand related to close Anglo Dutch relations of the period and these are investigated with respect to politics economy religion culture as well as to the large stranger communities residing in the respective countries On the other hand Leiden's attraction resulted from its academic achievements which are traced back to the conditions in the

United Provinces the limited influence of the Calvinist Church Leiden's professors as well as the university's facilities The core of this study is an exhaustive quantitative study of the composition of the Leiden student population in general and that of its English segment in particular Information is provided on the duration of the studies of English students at Leiden their age social background and fields of study We learn about the careers of English students both prior to and after their time at Leiden and of the motivation that led the English to choose Leiden over other continental universities More than a study of one group of students at one university this book is a valuable contribution to the history of early modern universities and will appeal to a wide international readership interested in cultural and intellectual history as well as in Anglo-Dutch relations The Social Studies, 1928

The Metaphysical World of Isaac Newton John Chambers, 2018-02-13 Newton's heretical yet incisive writings on theology spirituality alchemy and prophecy written in secret alongside his Principia Mathematica Shows how Newton's brilliance extended far beyond math and science into alchemy spirituality prophecy and the search for lost continents such as Atlantis Explains how he was seeking to rediscover the one true religion that existed prior to the Flood of Noah when science and spirituality were one Examines Newton's alternate timeline of prehistory and his study of prophecy through the Book of Revelations including his prediction of Apocalypse in the year 2060 Isaac Newton 1643-1727 is still regarded by the world as the greatest scientist who ever lived He invented calculus discovered the binomial theorem explained the rainbow built the first reflecting telescope and explained the force of gravity In his famous masterpiece Principia Mathematica he described the mechanics of the physical universe with unimagined precision proving the cosmos was put together according to laws The perfection of these laws implied a perfect legislator To Newton they were proof that God existed At the same time Newton was writing Principia Mathematica he was writing a twin volume that he might have called had it been completed Principia Theologia Principles of Theology This other masterpiece of Newton kept secret because of the heresies it contained consists of thousands of essays providing incisive answers to the spiritual questions that have plagued mankind through the ages Examining Newton's secret writings John Chambers shows how his brilliance extended into alchemy spirituality the search for lost continents such as Atlantis and a quest to uncover the corrupted texts that were rife in the Bibles of his time Although he was a devout Christian Newton's work on the Bible was focused not on restoring the original Jewish and Christian texts but on rediscovering the one true religion that existed prior to the Flood of Noah when science and spirituality were one The author shows that a single thread runs through Newton's metaphysical explorations He is attempting to chart the descent of man's soul from perfection to the present day The author also examines Newton's alternate timeline of ancient history and his study of prophecy through the Book of Revelations including his prediction of an Apocalypse in the year 2060 followed by a radically transformed world He shows that Newton's great hope was that these writings would provide a moral compass for humanity as it embarked upon the great enterprise that became our technological world *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Office,1936 Segmented Worlds and Self Yi-fu Tuan, Catalogue of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1936 The Publishers Weekly ,1920 Physician Extraordinary David Weiss,1975 Press Censorship in Jacobean England Cyndia Susan Clegg,2001-08-16 This 2001 book examines the ways in which books were produced read and received during the reign of King James I It challenges prevailing attitudes that press censorship in Jacobean England differed little from either the whole machinery of control enacted by the Court of Star Chamber under Elizabeth or the draconian campaign implemented by Archbishop Laud during the reign of Charles I Cyndia Clegg building on her earlier study Press Censorship in Elizabethan England contends that although the principal mechanisms for controlling the press altered little between 1558 and 1603 the actual practice of censorship under King James I varied significantly from Elizabethan practice The book combines historical analysis of documents with literary reading of censored texts and exposes the kinds of tensions that really mattered in Jacobean culture It will be an invaluable resource for literary scholars and historians alike Licensing, Censorship and Authorship in Early Modern England R. Dutton,2000-11-08 Licensing Censorship and Authorship in Early Modern England examines in detail both how the practice of censorship shaped writing in the Shakespearean period and how our sense of that censorship continues to shape modern understandings of what was written Separate chapters trace the development of licensing in the theatre and the response of the actors and dramatists to it There are detailed examinations of how censorship affects our reading of four major playwrights Marlowe Shakespeare Jonson and Middleton and of how the control of printed books compared with that of the stage Flemish and Dutch Artists in Early Modern England MaryBryanH. Curd,2017-07-05 By examining their production practices in a variety of genres including manuscript illustration glass painting and staining tapestry manufacture portrait painting and engraving this book explores how Netherlandish artists migrating to England in the early modern period overcame difficulties raised by their outsider status This study examines for the first time in this context the challenges of alien status to artistic production and the effectiveness of cooperation as a countermeasure The author demonstrates that collaboration was chief among the strategies that these foreigners chose to secure a position in London s changing art market Curd s exploration of these collaborations primarily follows Pierre Bourdieu s model of establishment and challenger in which dominance in a field of cultural production depends upon how much cultural political and economic capital can be accumulated and the effectiveness of the strategies used to confront competition The analysis presented here challenges received opinion that a collaborative work is only a joint effort of artists working together on a single monument by demonstrating that the participation of patrons and middlemen can also shape the final appearance of a work of art Furthermore this book shows that the strategic use of collaboration served the goal of competition by helping to establish foreign artists in the London art market and suggests that their coping strategies have implications for the study of immigrant behaviors today
