Pageantry Of Britain:

Pageants in Great Britain and the United States Caroline Hill Davis, 1916 The Autobiography of a Nation Becky Conekin, 2003-06-28 The first full length study on the 1951 Festival of Britain The Pageantry of Britain Julian Paget, 1981-07-01 British Theatre Between the Wars, 1918-1939 Clive Barker, Maggie B. Gale, 2000 This volume initiates a long overdue reassessment of mid twentieth century British theatre cultures The Pageantry of Britain Sir Julian Paget, 1979 Archaeologies of the British Susan Lawrence, 2003-04-17 Beginning with the early English colonisation of Ireland and Virginia the international range of contributors in Archaeology of the British examine the interplay of objects and identity in Scotland and Wales regional England Canada Australia South Africa Cyprus and Sri Lanka Informed by developments in historical archaeology and by postcolo Queen Boudica and Historical Culture in Britain Martha Vandrei, 2018 Taking a long chronological view and a wide ranging interdisciplinary approach this is an innovative and distinctive book It is the definitive work on the posthumous reputation of the ever popular warrior queen of the Iceni Queen Boadicea Boudica exploring her presence in British historical discourse from the early modern rediscovery of the works of Tacitus to the first historical films of the early twentieth century In doing so the book seeks to demonstrate the continuity and persistence of historical ideas across time and throughout a variety of media This focus on continuity leads into an examination of the nature of history as a cultural phenomenon and the implications this has for our own conceptions of history and its role in culture more generally While providing contemporary contextual readings of Boudica s representations Martha Vandrei also explores the unique nature of historical ideas as durable cultural phenomena articulated by very different individuals over time all of whom were nevertheless engaged in the creative process of making history Thus this study presents a challenge to the axioms of cultural history new historicism and other mainstays of twentieth and twenty first century historical scholarship It shows how long before professional historians sought to monopolise historical practice audiences encountered visions of past ages created by antiquaries playwrights poets novelists and artists all of which engaged with articulated and even defined the meaning of historical truth This book argues that these individual depictions variable audience reactions and the abiding notion of history as truth constitute the substance of historical culture The Pageant of British History J. E. Parrot, 2021-01-18 Ritual of Royalty Michèle Brown, 1983 English Pageantry Robert Withington, 1920 American Historical Pageantry David Glassberg, 1990 American Historical Pageantry The Uses of Tradition in the Early Twentieth Century Subject Index of the Modern Books Acquired by the British Museum in the Years 1916-1920 British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1922 The Routledge Companion to Twentieth Century British Theatre and Performance Claire Cochrane, Lynette Goddard, Catherine Hindson, Trish Reid, 2024-10-08 The Routledge Companion to Twentieth Century British Theatre and Performance provides a broad range of perspectives on the multiple models and examples of theatre artists enthusiasts enablers and audiences that emerged over this formative 100 year period

This first volume covers the first half of the century constructing an equitable and inclusive history that is more representative of the nation's lived experience than the traditional narratives of British theatre. Its approach is intra-national, weaving together the theatres and communities of England, Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland. The essays are organised thematically, arranged into sections that address nation, power, and identity, fixity and mobility, bodies in performance, the materiality of theatre, and communities of theatre. This approach highlights the synergies, convergences, and divergences of the theatre landscape in Britain during this period, giving a sense of the sheer variety of performance that was taking place at any given moment in time. This is a fascinating and indispensable resource for undergraduate and graduate students, postgraduate researchers, and scholars across theatre and performance studies, cultural studies, and twentieth-century history.

Bulletin of the New York Public Library New York Public Library, 1916. Includes its Report 1896-19. Restaging the Past Angela Bartie, Linda Fleming, Mark Freeman, Alexander Hutton, Paul Readman, 2020-08-17. Restaging the Past is the first edited collection devoted to the study of historical pageants in Britain, ranging from their Edwardian origins to the present day. Across Britain in the twentieth century, people succumbed to pageant fever. Thousands dressed up in historical costumes and performed scenes from the history of the places where they lived, and hundreds of thousands more watched them. These pageants were one of the most significant aspects of popular engagement with the past between the 1900s and the 1970s; they took place in large cities, small towns, and tiny villages and engaged a whole range of different organised groups, including Women's Institutes, political parties, schools, churches, and youth organisations. Pageants were community events bringing large numbers of people together in a shared celebration and performance of the past; they also involved many prominent novelists, professional historians, and other writers, as well as featuring repeatedly in popular and highbrow literature. Although the pageant tradition has largely died out, it deserves to be acknowledged as a key aspect of community history during a period of great social and political change. Indeed, as this book shows, some traces of pageant fever remain in evidence today. British Film Catalogue Denis Gifford, 2016-04-01. First published in 2001.
