Since the late eighteenth century the Adirondacks first characterized as a Dismal Wilderness and then a Sportsman's Paradise has challenged cartographers, scientists, sportsmen, travelers and artists. In a volume that covers nearly three hundred years of artistic achievement Adirondack Museum curator Caroline M. Welsh includes essays that were originally presented at the 1995 North American Print Conference at the Adirondack Museum. Comprehensive in scope and lavishly illustrated the book embodies the artistic spectrum from the documentary to the aesthetic. Paintings of Adirondack scenery were frequently reproduced as prints. Lithographs after original paintings disseminated affordable fine art to a broad middle class exemplifying a pervasive nineteenth century faith that art. By 1850 this northern expanse became a sanctuary for artists. Inspired by the drama of the landscape the purity of the light and the grandeur of its rugged wilderness artists flocked to the region. From Winslow Homer Dr. Arpad Gerster and the French naturalist Jacques Gerard Milbert to Canadian artist David Milne. Adirondack Prints and Printmakers underscores the importance of the wilderness landscape in American art and culture and the role that prints have played to document, promote and celebrate the Adirondacks.
