Persepolis and Jerusalem reconsiders Iranian influence upon Jewish apocalyptic and offers grounds upon which such study may proceed After describing the history of scholarship on the question of Iranian influence and on Jewish apocalyptic Jason M Silverman reformulates the methodology for understanding apocalyptic and influence Two chapters set the discussion firmly in the Achaemenid Empire describing the sources for Iranian religion the issues involved in attempting a historical reconstruction the methodology by which one can date the various texts and ideas and the potential loci for Iranian Judaeian interaction The historical context is expanded through media contextualization particularly Oral Theory and critiques the standard text centric method of current Biblical Scholarship With this background pericopes from Ezekiel Daniel and 1 Enoch are analyzed for Iranian influence The study then brings together the contexts and analyses to argue for an Apocalyptic Hermeneutic which relates the phenomena of apocalypticism apocalypse and millenarianism seeing the hermeneutic as a dialectical thread holding them all together as well as apart and posits this as the best place to understand Iranian influences The Literature of Pre-Islamic Iran Ronald E. Emmerick, Maria Macuch, 2008-10-31 Persian literature is the jewel in the crown of Persian culture It has profoundly influenced the literatures of Ottoman Turkey Muslim India and Turkic Central Asia and been a source of inspiration for Goethe Emerson Matthew Arnold and Jorge Luis Borges among others Yet Persian literature has never received the attention it truly deserves A History of Persian Literature answers this need and offers a new comprehensive and detailed history of its subject This 18 volume authoritative survey reflects the stature and significance of Persian literature as the single most important accomplishment of the Iranian experience The main object of this companion volume is to provide an overview of the most important extant literary sources in Old and Middle Iranian languages the languages of the Achaemenid Parthian and Sasanian periods culminating in the rich resource of Pahlavi Persian which fed so directly into the language of the later great Persian poets It will be an indispensable source for the literary traditions of pre Islamic Iran and an invaluable guide to the subject Pahlavi Texts E.
