Painted Shadow:

Painted Shadow Carole Seymour-Jones, 2009-12-23 By the time Vivienne Eliot was committed to an asylum for what would be the final nine years of her life she had been abandoned by her husband T S Eliot and shunned by literary London Yet Vivienne was neither insane nor insignificant She generously collaborated in her husband s literary efforts taking dictation editing his drafts and writing articles for his magazine Criterion Her distinctive voice can be heard in his poetry And paradoxically it was the unhappiness of the Eliots marriage that inspired some of the poet s most distinguished work from The Family Reunion to The Waste Land This first biography ever written about Vivienne draws on hundreds of previously unpublished papers journals and letters to portray a spontaneous loving but fragile woman who had an important influence on her husband s work as well as a great poet whose behavior was hampered by psychological and sexual impulses he could not fully acknowledge Intriguing and provocative Painted Shadow gracefully rescues Vivienne Eliot from undeserved obscurity and is indispensable for anyone wishing to understand T S Eliot Vivienne or the world in which they traveled

Levie,P.J.J. van Thiel,E. van de Wetering,2013-05-14 Since the second half of the last century art historians realizing that the image of Rembrandt s work had become blurred with time have attempted to redefine the artist s significance both as a source of inspiration to other artists and as a great artist in his own right In order to carry on the work started by previous generations a group of leading Dutch art historians from the university and museum world joined forces in the late 1960s in order to study afresh the paintings usually ascribed to the artist The researchers came together in the Rembrandt Research Project which was established to provide the art world with a new standard reference work which would serve the community of art historians for the nearby and long future They examined the originals of all works attributed to Rembrandt taking full advantage of today s sophisticated techniques including radiography neutron activation autoradiography dendrochronology and paint sample analysis thereby gaining valuable insight into the genesis and condition of the paintings The result of this meticulous research is laid down chronologically in the following Volumes A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings Volume I which deals with works from Rembrandt s early years in Leiden 1629 1631 published in 1982 A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings Volume II covering his first years in Amsterdam 1631 1634 published in 1986 THIS VOLUME A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings Volume

Uncovering Memory Tanja Sakota, 2023-03 My interest in site specific research is not random My mother escaped through the sewers of Breslau Germany in 1945 today known as Wrocław Poland My father was born in a country that no longer exists Their final destination was Johannesburg South Africa This is where I enter the narrative I was born during apartheid and my interest in memory and identity is a result of my historical and political context Each one of us comes with a history a complex web of DNA and a library of information that shapes who we are and how we view the world How can we use our own complexities not only to engage with one another but to build it for story content As an artistic researcher filmmaker and educator Tanja Sakota has often thought how to bring this subjective experience into pedagogical practice Using paired themes of memory and forgetting segregation and migration perpetrators and victims Sakota travels along a timeline of memory as she takes us on a journey through South Africa Germany Poland and Bosnia Herzegovina Using a camera and short film techniques she hosts several workshops focused on interacting and engaging with remembering through different memory sites The author sits at the core but the book is an interdisciplinary work shaped around films made by different participants using the camera to access and unveil personal interpretations of space and place Questions that underpin the uncovering of memories are How does one use a camera to unmask invisible memories hidden within sites How does one remember events that one hasn't necessarily experienced How does one use film to interrogate the past from the future present As the journey evolves workshop participants and readers alike enter into a conversation around practice based research autoethnography and film Uncovering Memory is not a handbook offering a prescriptive method Instead it is a pedagogical text that offers an interactive approach for students and peers to consider adapt or react to in their own teaching and learning practices The narrative encourages readers to self reflect as they explore their own memory using the camera and short film format as an engaging tool for research and knowledge production
